

COCOA LIFE PROGRESS IN NUMBERS

We source 63% of our chocolate through COCOA LIFE

175,017 FARMERS

2,021 COMMUNITIES

SUSTAINABLE COCOA FARMING BUSINESSES
Working hand-in-hand with cocoa farmers to make cocoa farming a business of choice. We help farmers become more productive, so they can increase their income from cocoa.

10,809,555 Cocoa seedlings distributed
391 Nurseries

689 Cocoa-farming demonstration plots

19,059 Youth trained on cocoa-related enterprises
175,017 Farmers trained, coached or having a farm development plan on Good Agricultural Practices

EMPOWERED COCOA COMMUNITIES
Empowering the men, women and youth within cocoa communities to lead their own development and improve their livelihoods through entrepreneurship.

1,599 Communities with a CODEC and Community Action Plan activated 3,205 CAP projects completed in communities

583 Communities with a Child Labor Monitoring and Remediation System or equivalent
656 Communities with Child Protection Committees
270,863 Community members and farmers educated on issues of child labor and forced child labor

1,967 Village Savings and Loan Associations (VSLAs) operational
321 VSLAs linked to finance institutions
121,167 Community members who participate in VSLAs, of which more than 72% are women

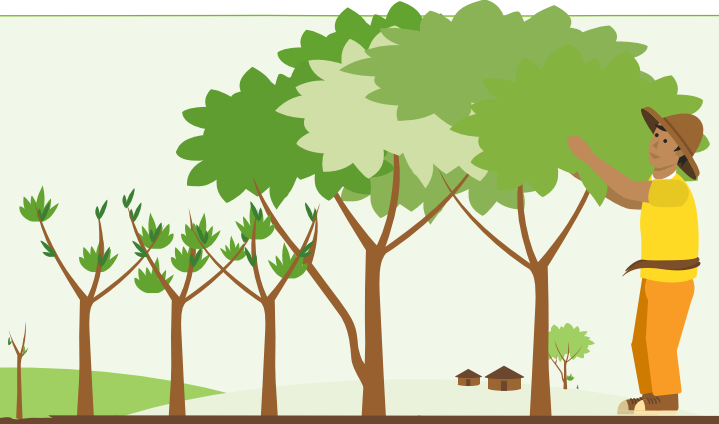

18,234 Community members involved in additional income generating activities

97,860 Community members trained on gender awareness

72,498 Community members trained on financial literacy
52,905 Community members trained on business management

CONSERVED AND RESTORED FORESTS
Protecting and restoring the land and forests where cocoa is grown, together with the farmers and communities.

172,285 Community members and farmers trained on Good Environmental Practices

149,761 Farms mapped and monitored

1,420,082 Economic shade trees distributed

