

ANNOUNCEMENT ON SPIRIT AIRLINES

Spirit Airlines has announced it is winding down operations and has canceled all flights effective 3:00 a.m. Saturday, May 2, 2026.

Spirit has been a valued partner at MCO for more than 30 years. Our thoughts are with Spirit's employees and the many passengers who are impacted by this action.

Spirit is encouraging passengers to not show up at the airport. The airline is directing passengers to their website here for updated information about obtaining refunds, locating missing luggage, and other answers they may need.

Following conversations with the U.S. Department of Transportation, American Airlines, United, Delta, JetBlue, Southwest, Allegiant, Frontier, Avelo, and Breeze have all agreed to support impacted Spirit passengers in different ways. Passengers should refer to each individual airline website for additional specifics. For alternate flights to various destinations from MCO, please see our Flight Destinations by Airlines information below.

Passengers may consider other forms of transportation, including Brightline, which goes to South Florida; or a car rental from one of the 10 rental car companies at MCO.

To know your rights as an airline passenger, the U.S. Department of Transportation offers guidance on their website here.

This is a fluid situation, and we will continue to monitor it closely as we remain committed to supporting our passengers and airline partners.
