

Ethan Lan

418 E. 73rd ST, 10021, New York, NY, USA
Tel: +1-720-238-2990 | Email: ealescent@gmail.com

BIO

Ethan Lan (b. 2000) is a Taiwanese American visual artist with a focus in photography and printmaking. Born to immigrant parents, Ethan's work delves into the complexities of cultural background, family ties, trauma, and justice. For him, these themes serve as a profound means of self-discovery and "becoming more myself."

Education

Bachelor of Science, NYU Shanghai
Business and Finance

Shanghai, CN
May 2022

Exhibitions

Visionary Projects With Love, New York
Group Exhibition and Piece was Sold

New York City, NY
March, 2025

- Exhibited at Visionary Project's With Love, New York and one of the few that sold an image from the "United we Bargain, Divided we Beg" project

Visionary Projects x Anderson Contemporary: It's Time to Slow Down
Finalist

New York City, NY
Nov 2023

- Created and submitted a painting called "Kill Our Enemies Where They Stand"
- With large amount of Anti-Chinese sentiment throughout the US, I was inspired by Yellow Peril propaganda posters circa the Chinese Exclusion Act and created satirical piece on canvas using acrylic and spray paint in response to that growing anti-chinese sentiment

Art Fairs

Printed Matter, NY Art Book Fair
Makan Press Booth

New York City, NY
September, 2025

Taipei Art Book Fair
Makan Press Booth

New York City, NY
November, 2025

Tokyo Art Book Fair
Makan Press Booth

New York City, NY
December, 2025

Selected Publication

Makan Press
A-Ma

New York City, NY
September, 2025

- H: 9.5in x W: 7.5in, handmade, cover screen-printed on linen, and laser printed
- Publishing my first monograph with Makan Press for my project A-Ma in a limited first edition run of 60, debuting at Printed Matter New York Art Book Fair