

King Midas | Worksheet

Story sequencing: Number the scenes in order from first to last.

King Midas regretted his wish and asked that everything be turned back to normal. <hr/> <hr/>
The King helped a satyr who was tired and ill. <hr/> <hr/>
King Midas wished that everything he touched would turn to gold. <hr/> <hr/>
Dionysis granted King Midas a wish. <hr/> <hr/>

Answer Key

King Midas regretted his wish and asked that everything be turned back to normal. 4	 An illustration showing a man in a blue robe (King Midas) and a woman in a blue dress holding a bunch of grapes. A man in a brown robe is also holding a bunch of grapes. They are standing in a garden with a stone path and a building in the background.
The King helped a satyr who was tired and ill. 1	 An illustration showing a man in a brown robe (King Midas) standing next to a satyr (a man with horns and a tail) who is sitting on the ground, looking tired and ill. The background shows a garden with a stone path and a building.
King Midas wished that everything he touched would turn to gold. 3	 An illustration showing a man in a brown robe (King Midas) holding a golden key. He has a laurel wreath on his head. The background is a light blue sky with a sun.
Dionysis granted King Midas a wish. 2	 An illustration showing a man in a white robe (Dionysis) holding a hammer and a blue stream of light. The stream of light is hitting a man in a brown robe (King Midas) who is falling or being thrown. The background is a light blue sky with stars.