

Laws in the United States | Worksheet

Laws are publicly known official rules that all citizens must _____.

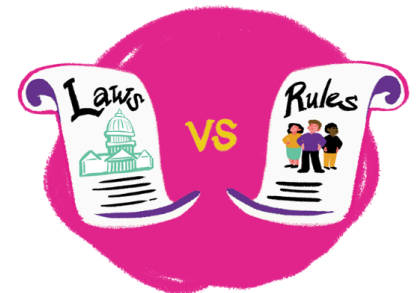

The Framers of the Constitution designated _____ to be the main legislative or lawmaking body of the United States.

The Founders believed that laws had a fixed meaning and should be _____.

Laws limit what people can do but also provide order, so lawmakers must decide whether the benefit of the restriction is worth limiting people's _____.

The main difference between rules and laws is that while rules are guidelines put in place by private groups or individuals to regulate behavior, laws are formal rules that are enacted and enforced by _____.

In order to pass, a federal law requires a majority vote or consensus between both houses of Congress and the approval of the _____.

Laws can be created on a state or local level, but _____ is considered the supreme Law of the Land.

_____ is an example of a law in the United States.

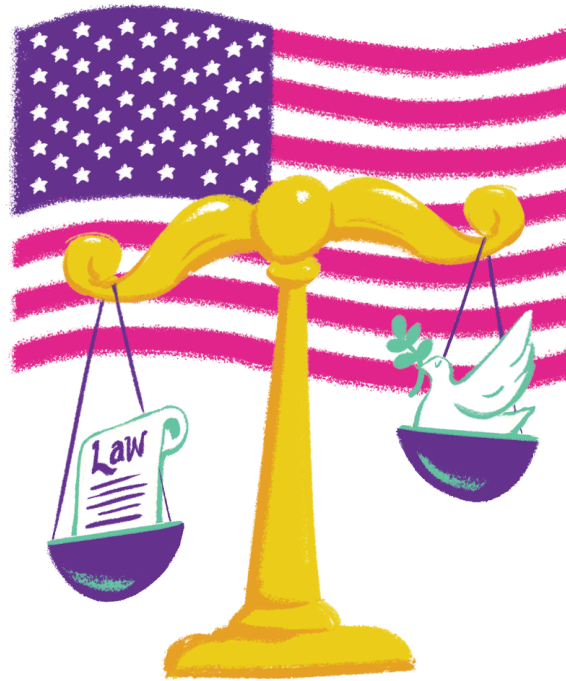

Scan to watch episode:

Laws in the United States | Answer Key

Laws are publicly known official rules that all citizens must FOLLOW.

Laws limit what people can do but also provide order, so lawmakers must decide whether the benefit of the restriction is worth limiting people's FREEDOM.

The Framers of the Constitution designated CONGRESS to be the main legislative or lawmaking body of the United States.

The Founders believed that laws had a fixed meaning and should be ENFORCED.

The main difference between rules and laws is that while rules are guidelines put in place by private groups or individuals to regulate behavior, laws are formal rules that are enacted and enforced by THE GOVERNMENT.

In order to pass, a federal law requires a majority vote or consensus between both houses of Congress and the approval of the PRESIDENT.

Laws can be created on a state or local level, but THE CONSTITUTION is considered the supreme Law of the Land.

A NEW TAX is an example of a law in the United States.