

American Monuments | Worksheet

The Lincoln Memorial was built in _____ to honor Abraham Lincoln, the "Savior of the Union".

Mount Rushmore depicts the faces of four widely admired presidents: George Washington, Thomas Jefferson, Abraham Lincoln, and _____.

The _____ was built to honor our first president, who is also known as the "Father of His Country".

The _____ can be found at Arlington National Cemetery and honors all of America's fallen soldiers whose remains have not been found or identified.

The _____ was built to recognize a mid-20th century civil rights leader and the struggle for freedom, equality, and justice.

The _____ commemorates Thomas Jefferson's vision of a transcontinental United States and the pioneers who courageously explored and settled the continent.

There is a national memorial in Kitty Hawk, North Carolina built to commemorate the _____ brothers, who pioneered powered flight in 1903.

Originally, Mount Rushmore was supposed to feature the presidents' _____ down to their waists, but the lack of suitable rock led to the current design.

Scan to watch episode:

American Monuments | Answer Key

The Lincoln Memorial was built in WASHINGTON, D.C. to honor Abraham Lincoln, the "Savior of the Union".

Mount Rushmore depicts the faces of four widely admired presidents: George Washington, Thomas Jefferson, Abraham Lincoln, and THEODORE ROOSEVELT.

The WASHINGTON MONUMENT was built to honor our first president, who is also known as the "Father of His Country".

The TOMB OF THE UNKNOWN SOLDIER can be found at Arlington National Cemetery and honors all of America's fallen soldiers whose remains have not been found or identified.

The MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. MEMORIAL was built to recognize a mid-20th century civil rights leader and the struggle for freedom, equality, and justice.

The GATEWAY ARCH commemorates Thomas Jefferson's vision of a transcontinental United States and the pioneers who courageously explored and settled the continent.

There is a national memorial in Kitty Hawk, North Carolina built to commemorate the WRIGHT brothers, who pioneered powered flight in 1903.

Originally, Mount Rushmore was supposed to feature the presidents' UPPER BODIES down to their waists, but the lack of suitable rock led to the current design.