

American Mottos | Worksheet

In 1956, President

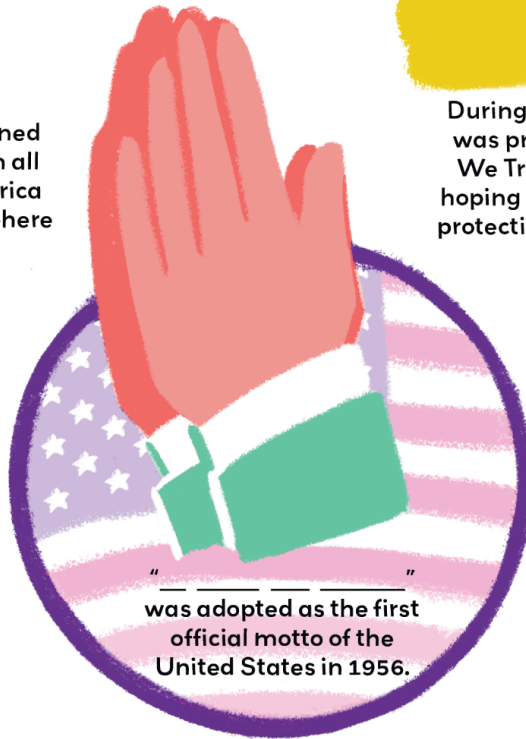

_____ signed a bill placing "In God We Trust" on all American currency, because America "was founded in a spiritual atmosphere and with a firm trust in God."

During _____, it was proposed that "In God We Trust" be put on coins, hoping it would ensure God's protection of a divided Union.

"Novus Ordo Seclorum" translates to "New order of the ages," which asserts the birth of America as the start of a new age of _____.

"_____ " was adopted as the first official motto of the United States in 1956.

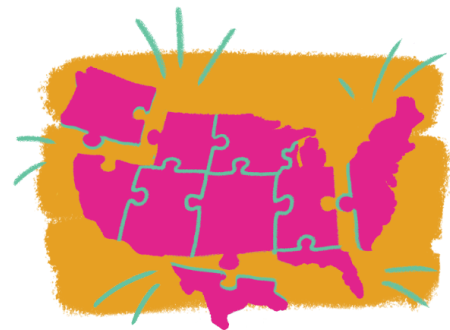

The mottos "Novus Ordo Seclorum" and "Annuit Coeptis" are both on the reverse side of the _____.

Historians believe that the Founders used the motto "E Pluribus Unum" in order to highlight the union of the different backgrounds and cultures of the original _____.

In Latin, "Annuit Coeptis" translates to "He favors our undertakings," which means _____.

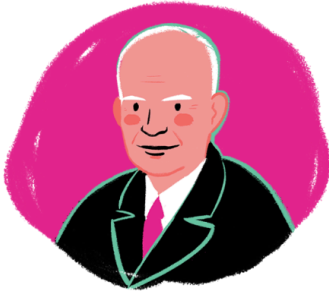

The well-known American motto, "E Pluribus Unum," is a Latin phrase that means "_____," _____."

Scan to watch episode:

American Mottos | Answer Key

In 1956, President DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER signed a bill placing "In God We Trust" on all American currency, because America "was founded in a spiritual atmosphere and with a firm trust in God."

During THE CIVIL WAR, it was proposed that "In God We Trust" be put on coins, hoping it would ensure God's protection of a divided Union.

"Novus Ordo Seclorum" translates to "New order of the ages," which asserts the birth of America as the start of a new age of FREEDOM IN THE WORLD.

"IN GOD WE TRUST" was adopted as the first official motto of the United States in 1956.

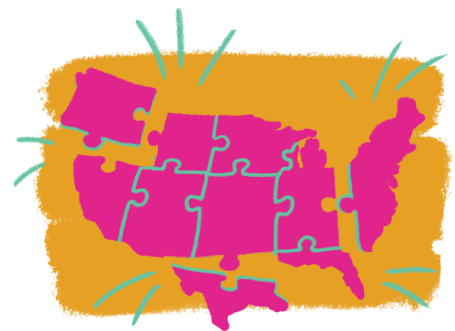

The mottos "Novus Ordo Seclorum" and "Annuit Coeptis" are both on the reverse side of the GREAT SEAL OF THE UNITED STATES.

Historians believe that the Founders used the motto "E Pluribus Unum" in order to highlight the union of the different backgrounds and cultures of the original 13 COLONIES.

In Latin, "Annuit Coeptis" translates to "He favors our undertakings," which means GOD SUPPORTS AND BLESSES AMERICA.

The well-known American motto, "E Pluribus Unum," is a Latin phrase that means "OUT OF MANY, ONE."