

Warm-Up Activity:

List 5-7 qualities of a good leader on the scroll below.

Qualities of a Good Leader

Word Bank

Roman Catholicism	Queen Mary	Protestantism
Protestant Reformation	Spanish Armada	France
Christianity	national pride	Common Prayer Book

Directions: Use the word bank to fill in the blanks.

1. When _____ died, her sister, Queen Elizabeth I, became the Queen of England.
2. When Queen Elizabeth I assumed her title, England was at war with France and the country was divided. Citizens disagreed over how to practice _____.

3. The _____ was a religious reform movement that swept through Europe in the 16th century.
4. Queen Mary wanted to restore England to _____ after her father, King Henry VIII, broke away from the Catholic Church.
5. When Queen Elizabeth I became the Queen of England, she re-established the Church of England and _____ as the official state religion.
6. Queen Elizabeth I wanted the conflict between Protestants and Catholics to end in her kingdom, so she created a _____ that respected both sides.
7. England was fighting against the _____, which was Spain's large fleet of warships and the most powerful force in Europe at the time.
8. Queen Elizabeth I hoped that England's tremendous victory over the Spanish Armada would help to reinvigorate _____ in their country.

9. Making Connections:

- a. What is one quality Queen Elizabeth I possesses that made her a good leader? Give an example from the video.

- b. Queen Elizabeth I gave Layla some good advice about how to lead students as the new president of the study body. Explain how her advice can help Layla.

Queen Elizabeth I | Answer Key

Warm-Up Activity:

Check students' lists for completion. Students should list 5-7 qualities such as bravery, kindness, humility, wisdom, selflessness, compassion, etc.

Word Bank

Roman Catholicism	Queen Mary	Protestantism
Protestant Reformation	Spanish Armada	France
Christianity	national pride	Common Prayer Book

Directions: Use the word bank to fill in the blanks.

1. When Queen Mary died, her sister, Queen Elizabeth I, became the Queen of England.
2. When Queen Elizabeth I assumed her title, England was at war with France, and the country was divided. Citizens disagreed over how to practice Christianity.
3. The Protestant Reformation was a religious reform movement that swept through Europe in the 16th century.
4. Queen Mary wanted to restore England to Roman Catholicism after her father, King Henry VIII, broke away from the Catholic Church.
5. When Queen Elizabeth I became the Queen of England, she re-established the Church of England and Protestantism as the official state religion.
6. Queen Elizabeth I wanted the conflict between Protestants and Catholics to end in her kingdom, so she created a Common Prayer Book that respected both sides.
7. England was fighting against the Spanish Armada, Spain's large fleet of warships and the most powerful force in Europe at the time.
8. Queen Elizabeth I hoped that England's tremendous victory over the Spanish Armada would help to reinvigorate national pride in their country.

9. Making Connections:

- a. What is one quality Queen Elizabeth I possesses that made her a good leader? Give an example from the video.

Sample answer: Queen Elizabeth was humble, brave, and loyal. An example from the video is that she planned to travel to address the soldiers stationed on land. She explains that she is one with her people, and serving them is an honor.

- b. Queen Elizabeth I gave Layla some good advice about how to lead students as the new president of the study body. Explain how her advice can help Layla.

Sample answer: Queen Elizabeth I advised Layla on leadership: 1) Earn trust by showing care for others and being approachable for concerns. 2) Lead by example with dignified conduct and appearance. 3) Be decisive, patient, fair, and consistent, even when facing opposition.