What educators are saying:

"PragerU Kids' videos easily supplement our social studies class. Their videos draw the students' interest in a way that a teacher alone cannot achieve."

- Kindergarten Teacher, CA

"I could not be more ECSTATIC that PragerU is making educational content for children! I can easily use their videos to supplement my curriculum as an elementary school teacher. I know I can trust the content of their videos and don't have to worry about any hidden or subversive messaging, which is always a concern when I'm looking for supplemental videos, for example, on YouTube. When I show my students PragerU Kids shows, I know they will learn classical American values, which are sadly missing from our current educational curricula. I wish their content had been available when I started teaching! That would have been a game-changer."

- 4th Grade Teacher, CA

"PragerU's 'Cash Course' has a unique way of making financial literacy accessible and enjoyable for high school students. The interactive modules and relatable scenarios keep students engaged and eager to learn more about managing finances."

- Stephen V., 9th Grade Teacher

"As an educator, I find the 'Cash Course' by PragerU to be an invaluable resource. It empowers our students with practical financial skills while encouraging a strong work ethic and respect for the free market system."

- Justin E., 11th Grade Teacher

"PragerU's program is more than just a financial literacy course; it's a blueprint for responsible financial stewardship. It teaches students about the importance of savings, investment, and living within their means."

- Eric L., Head of School

"I am reaching out to express my deep appreciation for the materials provided by PragerU. Your dedication to promoting American values through educational videos has been instrumental in my teaching, and I am thrilled to continue utilizing your resources in the private school arena."

- Nicole D., Head of School
