

The Declaration of Independence | Worksheet

Adopted on _____, the Declaration of Independence was the founding document of the United States of America that established what a government's role should be, explained how King George III's rule did not measure up to that standard, and officially declared the nation independent from Great Britain.

Cited grievances against _____ of Great Britain

The introductory section of the Declaration includes the _____, which stated that

Power is derived from the _____

Cited three inalienable rights: _____, _____ AND THE _____

Originally drafted by _____ who became the 3rd President

John Hancock

The first person to sign the declaration was _____ Adopted by the Continental Congress on _____, _____

Declared that all persons are created _____

Scan to watch episode:

Lawmaking in the U.S. | Answer Key

Adopted on July 4, 1776, the Declaration of Independence was the founding document of the United States of America that established what a government's role should be, explained how King George III's rule did not measure up to that standard, and officially declared the nation independent from Great Britain.

Cited grievances against KING GEORGE III of Great Britain

The introductory section of the Declaration includes the PREAMBLE, which stated that

Power is derived from the CONSENT OF THE GOVERNED

Cited three inalienable rights: LIFE, LIBERTY AND THE PURSUIT OF HAPPINESS

Originally drafted by THOMAS JEFFERSON who became the 3rd President

John Hancock

The first person to sign the declaration was JOHN HANCOCK

Adopted by the Continental Congress on JULY 4TH, 1776

Declared that all persons are created EQUAL