

The Crow & the Pitcher | Worksheet

Story sequencing: Number the scenes in order from first to last.

At last, the water was high enough to drink! How good it tasted. <hr/>
The pitcher was too heavy. She could not move it. <hr/>
The water was so low in the pitcher that she could not reach far enough into it to take a sip. <hr/>
Soon, she approached what looked like a farm. Surely, there will be water here! <hr/>

Scan to watch episode:

The Crow & the Pitcher | Answer Key

At last, the water was high enough to drink! How good it tasted. 4	 A crow is perched on the rim of a white pitcher, drinking water. The pitcher is on a small mound of earth. The background is a blue sky with a few clouds.
The pitcher was too heavy. She could not move it. 3	 A crow is standing on a wooden stump next to a large white pitcher. The pitcher is partially filled with water. The background is a blue sky with a few clouds.
The water was so low in the pitcher that she could not reach far enough into it to take a sip. 2	 A crow is perched on the rim of a white pitcher, looking down at the water. The pitcher is on a small mound of earth. The background is a blue sky with a few clouds.
Soon, she approached what looked like a farm. Surely, there will be water here! 1	 A crow is flying over a farm. In the background, there is a blue house with a grey roof and a red barn with a grey roof. The farm is surrounded by green fields and a wooden fence. The sky is blue with a few clouds.