

THE CHURCH

PETER & PAUL

M A Y 2 0 1 9

E V E R Y W E E K

MONDAYS & WEDNESDAYS

Pilates ~ 10am

With Julie Schexnayder.
All ages and skill levels are welcome.
Mats provided, donation-based.

TUESDAYS

PlayLab with Gregory Dorado ~ 6pm

An open form task based movement class for all levels of experience. Developed with adults in mind as a space for freely structured movement to honor our need for playful but important physical release. Donation based.

SATURDAYS & SUNDAYS

Yoga ~ 9am

With Tyler St. Jean (Saturday), Jill Tatarski (Sundays), and Emily Zastrow (Sundays). Mats provided, donation-based.

SUNDAYS

Meditation ~ 10:30am

Alex Bonano leads a guided hour-long meditation in the church, donation-based.

Felice Flow ~ 6pm

A free, funky, and focused Vinyasa flow yoga class with Felice Graham. Mats provided, donation-based.

MONDAY, MAY 6th

Dancing Grounds Annual GiveNOLA Give It and Get It Dance Party

7pm ~ 9:30pm

Enjoy free food, suggested donation bar, amazing raffle prizes, and spectacular dance performances followed by one epic dance party. Parking is limited - we encourage friends to carpool, Lyft, bike, or walk.

FRIDAY, MAY 10th

Trendafilka's Album Release Show

7:30pm ~ 9:30pm

We'll be releasing our first studio-recorded, professionally-produced full-length album, "Under Over," into the world on Friday, May 10th! Come early for refreshments and screening of our latest music video, and stay for a full performance by 11-piece polyphonic choir Trendafilka in the beautiful and resonant former church of Sts. Peter and Paul..

SATURDAY, MAY 11th

Bread & Butter, a cello recital

7pm ~ 8:30pm

Louisiana Philharmonic cellist Jeanne Jaubert and pianist Liliia Oliinyk present a program of works by their favorite composers – Bach, Beethoven, and Brahms (along with Dvorak's "Songs my mother taught me" to celebrate Mother's Day Eve.). $10 admission.

SATURDAY, MAY 18th

Ukrainian Polyphonic Singing Workshop

2pm ~ 5pm

An overview of Ukrainian singing – also called "bilij holos" or White Voice – and the meaning of summer solstice in Ukrainian culture.

Participants will learn Ukrainian traditional folk songs.

SUNDAY, MAY 19th

Piano Recital

2pm ~ 4pm

Amy Mackie hosts a recital for her students.

TUESDAY, MAY 21ST

Helen Gillet & Gregory Dorado

7:30pm ~ 9pm

Cellist, improviser, composer, and singer Helen Gillet and choreographer Greg Dorado present a work in progress performance, the culmination of a workshop that explores physical expression through communal rituals of mimicry, sonic feedback, and practices of intuition and personal power.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 22nd

Cello Recital

6pm ~ 8pm

Jeanne Jaubert of the Louisiana Philharmonic hosts a recital for her students, ages 8 to 63.

SUNDAY, MAY 26th

Caftan Fashion Parlour & Bazaar

4:30pm ~ 9:30pm

The category is: Caftan Couture, sailing in Corsica, men overboard, femme-dom flowy assassin realness - from Precious Ephemera, an afternoon of luxurious leisure where guests are encouraged to drape and embellish their creative take on the most comfortable high fashion garment in history.

Chicago-based performance artist Jydo brings the mood with smooth jazz saxophone solos, inspirational step-touch and slow-hand style dance therapy.

MONDAY, MAY 27th

Les Cenelles presents Strangé Creolité

7pm ~ 8:30pm

Les Cenelles is composed of the following artists: free feral, Sultana Isham, Peter J. Bowling, mun, Joseph Darenbourg, Cory Diane, and Denise Frazier.

Inspired by the group of poets who first used the name at the turn of the 19th century, Les Cenelles honors and pays homage to the creative, artistic and corporal freedom of self-expression embodied by our namesake. Les

Cenelles melds a wide variety of genres, sounds, and musical traditions rooted in the rich heritage and past of the Gulf South while moving ideas of creolité forward with new interpretation and technology.

All events are located in the Church of Hotel Peter and Paul, 2317 Burgundy Street in the Marigny.