

Monica Turner

Executive Vice President, Sales, North America

Monica leads Sales for P&G’s business in North America, which is the company’s largest and most profitable region and home to many of P&G’s largest retail customers. She works closely with many of these customers, and with the Sales teams in each of P&G’s business units, to develop winning plans that provide superior and sustainable consumer and retailer value. She is also responsible for transforming Sales capability and talent to lead in today’s dynamic retail environment.

Monica joined P&G in 1987, and has served in sales, strategy and planning roles across nearly all of P&G’s business units. She is a diversity and inclusion leader within the company, the consumer goods industry, and across the Cincinnati community where P&G is headquartered. She serves on P&G’s Corporate Women’s Leadership Team, as Chair for the Network of Executive Women (NEW), and as a member of the Catalyst Advisory Board, as well as board positions with the University of Cincinnati, and the Mercy Hospital System in Cincinnati.

Monica was recognized as a Woman of Influence by Venue Magazine in 2020 and as one of the Top 100 Most Influential Women in Corporate America by Savoy Magazine in 2019. In 2017, Monica also received the Visionary Leadership Award from Working Mother Magazine and was recognized as a Woman of Excellence by the National Association of Female Executives (NAFE). Monica is a member of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority.
