It is with a mixture of gratitude and sadness that we announce the retirement of our Principal, Mrs. Molly Treasa Mammen, who will be stepping down from her position after an outstanding 50 year career in education, which includes 35 years of dedicated service to The Asian School.

Mrs. Mammen joined The Asian School 35 years ago as the Academic Supervisor. Her commitment to excellence, passion for education and unwavering dedication to students quickly earned her the respect of the entire school community. In 1994, she was promoted to Head Teacher and in 2000, she assumed the role of Vice Principal, helping steer the school through an important period of growth and development.

In 2012, Mrs. Mammen was appointed Principal of The Asian School, a position she has held with distinction for the past 14 years. During her tenure as Principal, she has provided strong and compassionate leadership, guided the school through numerous milestones and continued to uphold the values and standards that define our institution.

Over the course of her remarkable career, Mrs. Mammen has been much more than a school leader. She has been a mentor to teachers, a trusted guide to students and a reassuring presence for parents. Her leadership has always been characterised by integrity, wisdom, kindness and a genuine commitment to the holistic development of every child.

Schools are shaped by the people who dedicate their lives to them and Mrs. Mammen's contribution to The Asian School is woven into the very fabric of our institution. While we will deeply miss her presence, leadership and guidance, we wish her a retirement filled with happiness, good health and peace. Her legacy will continue to inspire our school community for many years to come.

We would also like to inform you that the process of appointing the next Principal is underway and an announcement regarding the new Principal of The Asian School will be made in due course. We understand that transitions of this nature are significant moments in the life of a school community.
