

Planning is Stewardship

A presentation tailored specifically for Australian Christian Missionaries and ministry workers dealing with planning for retirement and navigating complex tax issues. Tips to consider and traps to avoid, this presentation will help you gain valuable knowledge and peace of mind as you continue your mission work.

FRASER HOLT & ROSLYN SCHNERRING

RDL

Fraser Holt is a director of rdl and a Chartered Accountant and a Certified Financial Adviser.

Roslyn Scherring is a Senior Adviser at rdl and is a Certified Practising Accountant with a specialisation in financial planning, and a registered Financial Adviser.

Both Fraser and Roslyn advise private clients at rdl, helping them to define their financial goals, leading them to understand their financial affairs, and plan for their future. We employ strategies addressing, taxation, Centrelink, aged care and estate planning. This is considered alongside the sound management of superannuation and investment portfolios. Our aim is to give our clients peace of mind to know their financial matters are properly cared for and managed. Fraser and Roslyn use their financial skills and experience to assist a range of Christian organisations with extensive experience in advising missionaries, clergy and other Christian ministry workers.
