

Oh No, I Need to Understand a Financial Statement!

Do you work in a Mission or Ministry and need to be able to understand financial Statements but just find them confusing? Have you joined a Mission Board, your gifting does not include finance, but you need to be able to read the mission's financial statements? Do you support a mission but would like to understand how it's going financially? You are not alone, that is why Steer Incorporated has asked Claire Harris to lead a workshop to assist the non-financial wizards with an opportunity to learn to read the financial statements placed before them so that we can all exercise Godly governance.
