

RE: Finding up to date information about Australia's registered charities

To Whom it may concern

You must not rely on ASIC's register for current information on Registered Charities. Charities are no longer required to lodge reports with or notify ASIC of common changes, therefore the ASIC register may be out of date and current company extracts may be inaccurate. Always check the ACNC Charity Register at www.acnc.gov.au/FindACharity for current details about charitable companies.

Please ensure that all of your staff are aware that they must check the ACNC Charity Register to obtain up to date information about a company that is a registered charity.

If information is not available, it has either not been supplied to the ACNC or it has been 'withheld' from the public on the ACNC Charity Register, such as for reasons of public safety. With the consent of the charity, the ACNC can provide withheld information to a third party. The ACNC Charity Register is updated automatically each time the charity reports or notifies the ACNC of changes.
