

MISSIONS INTERLINK SHORT-TERM TRAINING (MIST)

Role Description – MIST Facilitator

Faith, character and experience

- An evident and deep love for the Lord
- Affirmation of the AEA \(Australian Evangelical Alliance\) Statement of Faith and a life lived by the principles implicit in the AEA Personnel Policy
- Returnees from long term mission or short-term mission or short-term trips
- Drawn from cross-cultural mission agencies or churches involved in cross-cultural mission
- At least three facilitators to be able to be present for the whole time during MIST
- Commitment from all facilitators to be 'fully present' when at MIST
- Desire to give self and impart own life-lessons to participants
- Emotional ability to guide others in regards to responses that arise during MIST
- Demonstrates a passion to train those engaging cross-culturally

Adult Learning

- Sufficient competence / knowledge / skills in the topic/s they are facilitating
- Some experience with facilitating adult learning (using adult education principles)
 - a. Demonstrates the ability to keep the learners' needs in focus
- Ability to present in a professional, engaging manner
- Demonstrates a desire to grow as a facilitator of adult learning via mentoring, self-review and/or peer-review.
- Capacity to prepare for sessions (familiarity and ownership of material given) and to follow the curriculum outlined in the MIST Facilitators Manual.

Life-long Learning

- Ability and commitment to engage in Biblical reflection
- With MIST concentrating on spiritual, relational and cultural matters regarding engaging cross-culturally, we desire a personal commitment to life-long learning, particularly in the areas of cultural intelligence, interpersonal skills and spiritual formation