Moving forward in 2022

The Oil & Gas 2022 in-person and online conference, jointly developed by the AICPA and UNT PDX, has what is considered to be the most comprehensive education of topics affecting accounting professionals in the oil and gas industry. It continues to be one of the only conferences that offers in-depth discussions on accounting, auditing, tax, legislative and political issues facing the industry – both domestic and abroad.

Exhibitors have the opportunity to make solid contacts, build long-lasting relationships and generate qualified sales leads. There are many on-site and online opportunities to network with other professionals from around the country, affording you the unparalleled opportunity to promote your products and services.

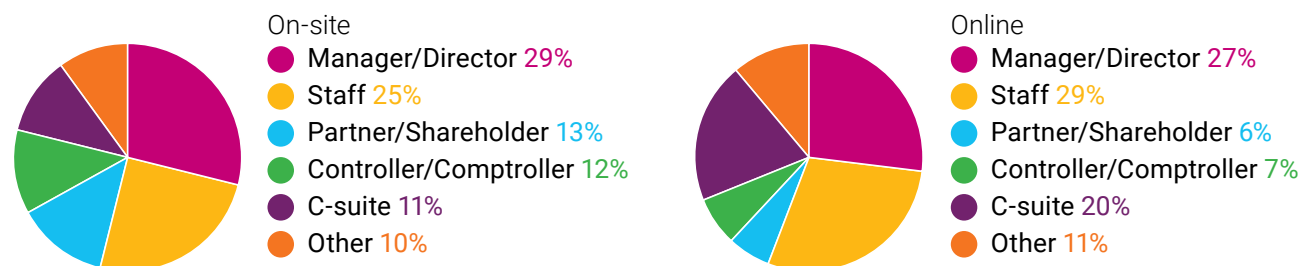

About UNT PDX – The AICPA® has again partnered with UNT PDX, a not-for-profit corporation established to benefit the University of North Texas. UNT PDX is a worldwide leader in oil and gas financial education, providing a link between academia and the global workforce.
