

GALAXY DIGITAL HOLDINGS LTD.

MAJORITY VOTING IN DIRECTOR ELECTIONS

As of July 30, 2018

Forms of proxy for the vote at a meeting of holders of shares of Galaxy Digital Holdings Ltd. (the “Company”) where directors of the Company are to be elected will enable each shareholder to vote in favour of, or to withhold from voting for, each nominee on an individual basis. In an uncontested election of directors, any nominee for election as a director who does not receive a greater number of votes “for” his or her election than votes “withheld” from such election (a “Majority Withheld Vote”) shall immediately tender his or her resignation, as a director of the Company, to the Chair of the board of directors of the Company (the “Board”) promptly following the meeting at which the director was elected, which resignation shall become effective upon acceptance by the applicable Board. An “uncontested election” shall mean an election where the number of nominees for election as director is equal to the number of directors to be elected. In any election of directors other than an uncontested election, this policy shall not apply. Following each uncontested election of directors at which a Majority Withheld Vote occurs, the Board shall forthwith issue a news release disclosing the detailed voting results for the election of each director, and shall forthwith provide a copy of the news release to the Toronto Stock Exchange (by email to disclosure@tsx.com).

The Compensation, Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee of the Board (the “CGN Committee”) shall promptly consider such tendered resignation and recommend to the Board the action to be taken with respect to such tendered resignation. The recommendation of the CGN Committee may be to accept or reject the resignation on such basis as the CGN Committee determines appropriate, provided that the CGN Committee shall recommend acceptance of the resignation if there are no exceptional circumstances present that would support rejection of the resignation. If the CGN Committee recommends rejection of the resignation, it shall include with its recommendation an indication of what it believes to be the underlying reasons for the Majority Withheld Vote in respect of the applicable director.

In considering a tendered resignation, and whether exceptional circumstances exist the CGN Committee will consider all factors deemed relevant to the best interests of the Company by members of the CGN Committee, including, without limitation, (i) any stated reasons why shareholders “withheld” votes from the election of that nominee; (ii) what the CGN Committee believes to be the underlying reasons for the Majority Withheld Vote, including whether these reasons relate to the incumbent director’s performance as a director, whether these reasons relate to the Company or another company or issuer, and whether these reasons are curable and alternatives for effecting any cure; (iii) the percentage of outstanding shares represented by votes cast and withheld from voting on the election of the subject director; (iv) the length of service and qualifications of the individual whose resignation has been tendered; (v) such individual’s past and expected future contributions to the Company; (vi) the Company’s corporate governance policies; (vii) the overall composition of the Board (including the current mix of skills and attributes of the Board and also including whether accepting the resignation would cause the Company to fail to meet any applicable regulatory or stock exchange listing requirements); and (viii) whether the resignation of the director could result in the triggering of change in control or similar provisions under any contract by which the Company is bound or any benefit plan of the Company and, if so, the potential impact thereof.

Any individual who tenders his or her resignation pursuant to this policy and who is a member of the CGN Committee shall not participate in any meeting of the CGN Committee held to consider the resignation.

The Board shall consider and determine whether to accept or reject the CGN Committee’s recommendation within 90 days following the applicable election of directors. In considering the CGN

Committee's recommendation, the Board will consider the factors considered by the CGN Committee and such additional information and factors that the Board considers to be relevant. Any individual who tenders his or her resignation pursuant to this policy shall not participate in any meeting of the Board held to consider the resignation. The Board shall accept the resignation except in situations where exceptional circumstances would warrant the applicable director continuing to serve on the Board. Following the Board's decision, the Board shall promptly disclose, via press release, its decision whether to accept the director's resignation offer and shall provide a copy of such press release to the Toronto Stock Exchange (by email to disclosure@tsx.com). If the Board rejects the resignation offer, the press release shall fully state the reasons for the rejection. If the resignation offer is accepted, the Board may, in accordance with the provisions of applicable law and the nomination rights, if any, of shareholders, (i) leave the resultant vacancy in the Board unfilled until the next annual meeting of shareholders of the Company, (ii) appoint a new director to fill the vacancy created by such resignation, (iii) reduce the size of the Board, or (iv) call a special meeting of shareholders at which there will be presented a new candidate to fill the vacant position(s).

If each member of the CGN Committee receives a Majority Withheld Vote in the same election, or if a sufficient number of CGN Committee members receives a Majority Withheld Vote in the same election such that the CGN Committee no longer has a quorum, then the independent directors of the Board who did not receive a Majority Withheld Vote shall appoint a committee amongst themselves to consider the resignation offers and make recommendations regarding them to the Board and any such committee shall comply with the provisions in this policy which are otherwise applicable to the CGN Committee; provided that if fewer than two independent directors did not receive Majority Withheld Votes in the same election, the Board shall establish a committee composed of all the independent directors to consider the resignation offers and recommend to the Board whether to accept them and any such committee shall comply with the provisions in this policy which are otherwise applicable to the CGN Committee.

In the event that a sufficient number of Board members receives a Majority Withheld Vote in the same election, such that the Board no longer has a quorum, then although each director receiving a Majority Withheld Vote shall not be permitted to vote in any meeting of the Board at which his or her resignation offer is considered, he or she shall be eligible to be counted for the purpose of determining whether the Board has quorum.

The Board may at any time in its sole discretion supplement or amend any provision of this policy in any respect, repeal this policy in whole or part or adopt a new policy relating to director elections with such terms as the Board determines in its sole discretion to be appropriate, subject to compliance with applicable regulatory or stock exchange listing requirements. The Board will have the exclusive power and authority to administer this policy for the Company, including without limitation the right and power to interpret the provisions of this policy and make all determinations deemed necessary or advisable for the administration of this policy. All such actions, interpretations and determinations which are done or made by the Board in good faith will be final, conclusive and binding.
