

Trip Note PROS

GLOSSARY OF TERMS

1. Fake Fast pace: Pace analysis tools will be incorrect in this situation because in 'fake fast' situations, pacesetters are CORRECTLY IGNORED by riders that identify a 'runoff leader' that is going too fast early. This results in a pack that is running "a race within a race." Don't be too quick to downgrade Closers in such situations!
2. Accordion Flow: An 'accordion flow' is a dynamic that mostly occurs in turf routes. When leaders are successful in "backing down the pace" to catch a breather before sprinting for home, the field can crunch together before stretching out again, sometimes causing traffic issues for the back markers. In the majority of these instances, speed types and ground savers are the runners to benefit.
3. L: This is merely an abbreviation for "length."
4. "Tight" in-between vs "Loose" in-between : In-between racing is common in larger fields. "Tight" in-between positions cause stress and leave runners with tough options: (1) Progress and run the risk of moving too early. (2) Idle to move backwards results in position and ground loss. (3) Remaining in the same spot will likely result in the burning of needed energy.
5. Gapped leaders: Imagine a runoff leader and then (1) or (2) more rivals with a big advantage to the rest of the pack. These leading runners are out of position and chasing a leader that is VERY LIKELY going too fast early. Situations with "gapped leaders" offer a HUGE advantage to the Closers

TRIP NOTE: ON SYNTHETIC: He was under a nice hold on the backstretch and paused a bit to avoid a bad spot when another rival moved inward, but the real trouble happened when the far turn arrived as he appeared to receive some mild contact that forced him inward, and he checked badly to the back of the pack to lose all chance. He'd finish with some interest in the last 3/16, but the damage was clearly already done! It seems safe to draw a line through this race.

TRIP NOTE: He broke VERY FAST and cleared easily in the early stages. He was prompted throughout while carving out slow fractions early, was ridden quietly through the far turn in preparation for the stretch drive, but was fairly average in the lane, getting overtaken by the runner that had prompted him throughout, and barely holding place money at the finish (he'd have finished 4th in just a few more jumps). A pace beneficiary on this day, the cutback in distance is logical.

TRIP NOTE: It's possible that he could have won this race: 1) He was mildly shuffled when common rival 'Adios Gary' moved inward and took control of the pocket, while resulted in this one's rider being forced to take hold of him and pause to avoid a bad spot. 2) After saving ground through the far turn and following loose pocket rival 'Adios Gary,' he eased off the rail into the stretch, was struggling to find a seam for which to level, and when finally looking to split horses, the hole closed and he was forced to check out of the race. In our opinion, he was traveling better than a place finisher that was beaten by less than 1L!

He inched his way forward to get to 'on even terms' with the runner to his inside, but after reaching the stretch drive with a share of the lead, was outfinished when it mattered, failing to change leads. STRONG DOWNGRADE

TRIP NOTE: This was nothing more than a very wide trip that gave him little chance of success. He took the scenic route in the far turn while racing 4-5-6-7W, and was never involved. A tough trip off of the bench, he receives a nice rider upgrade in his second start off of the bench.

STRONG DOWNGRADE

TRIP NOTE: She raced with the outer flow and 3W while flanking her biggest threat throughout, and was game through the lane to almost reel that foe in, barely falling short. A neutral trip relative to the others in this race (that also competed on 2-12), she adds blinkers for her second try at two turns.

STRONG DOWNGRADE

TRIP NOTE: She was off nearly 1L slow from the gate, which is noted correctly in the PPs. She recovered well to clear, and would maintain a measured advantage until the 5/16. She was engaged by (2) rivals to her outside and resisted until the top of the lane while under a strong hand shove, but would weaken in the lane. A tougher trip than it might seem due to the exacerbated fractions, she returns to the turf course today after two nice performances 'on dirt.'

STRONG DOWNGRADE

TRIP NOTE: She lagged at the back and saved ground through the first turn, but after easing off the rail on the backstretch and looking to follow the race favorite, she was forced to deal with tough, in-between spots the remainder of the journey, which was a long way to compete in such a way. A game try and honest effort in defeat deserves some extra credit!

TRIP NOTE: She raced 2-3W through the first turn and gained a bit on the backstretch, but after being held up to rate, she was unfortunate to get shuffled to the back as the backstretch progressed, which cost her almost 2L and a couple of important positions. She made a nice move through the far turn to emerge out of an in-between spot while 3+W, angled 4+W as the stretch drive approached, and finished willingly to close the gap in the lane. This was a solid performance that deserves some praise given the loss of position and wide journey!

TRIP NOTE: She raced in midpack and near the rail for most of the race. She saved ground through the far turn, eased 2-3W into the lane, and finished willingly while in some 'tight in-between spots' in the final furlong. A neutral trip vs much better, she draws the outside post for her first try as 3YO.
