Cancellation and Refund Procedures

1. Cooling Off Period

The Cooling Off Period is defined as seven (7) calendar days from the start date of the Enrolment Contract. The Enrolment Contract commences when all of the following conditions have been met:

- A student accepts the terms and conditions of their Student Agreement,
- All Enrolment Conditions specified on the Application Form have been met, and
- Swinburne Open Education sends a student their login details.

The Cooling Off Period commences from the last date that all 3 things have occurred (generally when the login is provided).

2. Overview of the cancellation and refund process

If a student wishes to terminate their studies before completion of course, the student is required to notify Swinburne Open Education in writing by emailing their request to the Student Support Team at studentservices@soe.edu.au.

A refund of course fees paid, less any applicable administrative fees (as described in the Schedule of Administrative Fees) will only be issued if Swinburne Open Education receives the Cancellation Request within the Cooling Off Period as defined in 1 Cooling Off Period, above.

Subject to Australian Consumer Law, a 50% reduction in course fee liability is applicable if Swinburne Open Education receives the Cancellation Request before the student reaches the halfway point of their enrolment period (excluding any extensions applied).

The Student Agreement and this Policy and Procedures outline the terms and conditions governing the cancellation of a course and whether any refund is payable.

3. Refunds

A refund of the course fee (less any applicable administrative fees as outlined in the Schedule of Administrative Fees) will be issued where:

- the Cancellation Request is received within the Cooling Off Period as defined in 1 Cooling Off Period.

A refund of the course fee will be issued where:

- The Cancellation Request identifies, and Swinburne Open Education agrees that it has failed to deliver the course to the required standards, for the required purpose or in the required time frame,
- The Cancellation Request identifies, and Swinburne Open Education agrees that the student received misinformation during the enrolment process,
- The Cancellation Request identifies some other deficiency in the enrolment process, or
- A Special Consideration application is received, and Swinburne Open Education considers that there are grounds for granting a refund or other remedy under Special Consideration to the student. Refer to the Special Consideration Process included in the Cancellation and Refund Procedures Guideline.

4. Refund where there is a failure in delivery of a course

Under the Australian Consumer Law, the courses offered by Swinburne Open Education come with guarantees that they will be:

- Provided with acceptable care and skill or technical knowledge and taking all necessary steps to avoid loss and damage,
- Fit for the purpose or give the results that Swinburne Open Education and the student agreed to,
- Delivered within a reasonable time frame when there is no agreed end date,

Swinburne Open Education is legally obliged to provide a student with a full refund if requested where there is a 'major failure' of one or more of these guarantees. A major failure occurs where the service:

- Has a problem that would have stopped the consumer from buying it if they had known about it,
- Is substantially unfit for its purpose and cannot easily be fixed within a reasonable time,

- Does not meet the specific purpose that the student asked for and cannot easily be fixed within a reasonable time.

If the failure that has occurred is not a major failure but is still a failure on the part of Swinburne Open Education, Swinburne Open Education is required to rectify the failure. This might involve, but is not limited to, updating course materials, allowing a student to resubmit an assessment or extending the maximum duration of the course.

Where a failure has occurred, in some circumstances Swinburne Open Education may be liable for compensation for loss that a student has experienced as a result of the failure by Swinburne Open Education to meet the guarantee. Swinburne Open Education may be liable where the problem could be reasonably foreseen.

Prior to the halfway point of the Enrolment Period

On receipt of a Cancellation Request outside the Cooling Off Period, and before the student reaches the halfway point of their enrolment period (excluding any extensions applied), Swinburne Open Education will:
