

100 Stockton Street

Located just steps from renowned Union Square, 100 Stockton serves as a central destination with convenient access to retail spaces, storefront businesses, and rooftop hospitality. This property seamlessly marries the history of the area with a timeless design. With an abundance of natural light, the interior of the building blends the warmth and tranquility of the coast with the sophistication and sleekness of modern architecture. Convene's newest property encompasses the culture of San Francisco and preserves its rich historical context.

Complimented by its ornate design and expansive layout, this property introduces a large meeting and event space to the neighborhood. Spanning 53,000 total square feet inclusive of 7 meeting spaces, this location is the ideal space to host your next large hybrid conference, town hall, or evening reception.
