

Public event (January 25, 2023)

The power of human rights to protect tenure rights:

A call for a human rights-based approach to land governance

Programme

The program will be moderated by TMG Research (Jes Weigelt)

Welcome
10:30 – 11:00	Arrival and coffee/tea for in-person participants
11:00 – 11:10	Opening words
Demonstrating the urgency to protect tenure security to realize human rights
11:10 - 11:20	Presentation of two cases underlining the urgency to protect tenure security to avoid human rights violations in the context of community land, women rights to land, large-scale investments and natural resource management  > Grassroots organisations
11:20 – 11:25	The role of NHRIs to protect tenure security- a regional perspective on land tenure and human rights  > Network of African National Human Rights Institutions (NANHRI)
11:25 – 11:30	The potential of rights-based approaches and land tenure to achieve the right to food and development of vulnerable groups
Human Rights 4 Land: practical tools to apply a human rights-based approach to land governance
11:30 – 11:45	Presentation of the linkages between human rights and land governance and the Human Rights 4 Land Monitoring Tool  > Danish Institute for Human Rights (DIRHR)
11:45 – 12:00	Presentation of experiences in applying the Human Rights 4 Land Tools in Malawi  > Malawi Human Rights Commission (MHRC)
Reflections for the future: the potential of the human rights-based approach and its tools
12:00 – 12:40	Panel Discussion with representatives of a National Human Rights Institution, a grassroots organisation and an international development organisation : <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>- sharing experiences in applying a human rights-based approach to land governance and discussing its relevance in the fight for tenure security</li><li>- reflecting on the added value of the Human Rights 4 Land Tools and their potential to address land governance challenges.</li></ul>

12:40-12:55	Q&A by in-person audience (and online in chat)
Closing remarks
12:55 – 13:00	Key messages and closing reflections from the perspective of National Human Rights Institutions and Civil Society Organisations.
13:00	End of public event

In-person participants are invited for a joint lunch in the Golden Tulip Hotel (13:00 – 14:00 EAT)

Organized by:

Financed by:

