

PET INSURANCE

So you just got a new puppy or kitten. Or, you have been thinking about it and have decided it's time that you get pet insurance for your current pet. Where do you go from here? There are so many different companies that offer it and so many things that each one offers. Pet insurance can be very beneficial for any pet that has it. It is a big decision to make and there are several different factors in deciding which one is right for you and your pet. We have compiled a list of questions that are important to ask when deciding which pet insurance you would like. Also, a list of popular pet insurance companies has been provided. There are several other questions and other insurance companies out there as well. Ensure that you are doing your research to choose the pet insurance that fits both you and your pet best. Please note that while we have provided you with the names of some popular insurance companies below, we are in no way affiliated with any of them nor do we advocate for any specific one.

Questions to Consider:

1. How long has the company been around? Is it reputable?
2. What would you like to be covered? Accident/Sick-Care? Wellness Care? (Most companies have Wellness Care as an add-on)
3. What type of pet do you have and what types of issues is their breed prone to? This may help with your decision making.
4. What type of lifestyle does your pet have? An active pet or more sedentary pet?
5. What would your deductible be?
6. What is the plan's reimbursement plan?
7. Are there age limits for application?
8. What are the waiting periods?
9. What do they consider pre-existing conditions?
10. Can it be used for emergency or referral clinics?
