

The best way to spoil your dog rotten in all 50 states

Orbitz Editors & Dalia Colon

August 6, 2018 Leave a comment

He's your best friend. Your roll dog. The one who listened without judgement after your last Tinder fail. And even though he chewed through your cell phone cord last week, you love your furry friend. While the occasional belly rub is a nice gesture, sometimes you've gotta step up the pampering game. In anticipation of National Spoil Your Dog Day on August 10, here's how to indulge human's best friend.

Ohio

A poolside cabana outfitted with a loveseat and fireplace? Sounds like you and your pet would have a nice stay, except that you won't be there. The Barkley, a pet hotel and day camp in Cleveland offers everything from pawdicures to bedtime stories to trans-paw-tation to and from the resort. The 16,000-square-foot facility provides ample room for playtime and some rooms surround a soothing fountain. Felines are also welcome; they hang out at Kitty City.

