

CLINICAL STUDY ANNOUNCEMENT

WANTED! DOGS WITH HIP ARTHRITIS FOR NOVEL JOINT INJECTION THERAPY

- Confirmed diagnosis of hip arthritis helpful
- Must NOT have: current or ongoing knee problems, elbow disease, neurologic disease, or have had a joint injection within the past 6 months

Benefits to Dog and Owner

- Complete bloodwork, hip radiographs and joint injection therapy provided at no cost to client
 - Valued at around $4,000 per patient!
- Dogs can stay on all of their current medications
- Treatment provided by a board-certified anesthesiologist & pain management specialist
- Unique opportunity to participate in an innovative clinical trial to help further research in veterinary medicine!

Requirements

- Must be able to commit to bringing dog to Colorado Animal Specialty & Emergency for 5 visits within 3 months

If you are interested in having your dog participate in this clinical study, please reach out to us at painstudies@coloradoanimalspecialty.com for enrollment information!

COLORADO ANIMAL SPECIALTY & EMERGENCY

24/7 Emergency & Critical Care | Anesthesia, Pain Management & Physical Rehabilitation
Cardiology | Internal Medicine | Nephrology & Extracorporeal Therapy | Neurology & Neurosurgery
Oncology | Orthopedic & Soft Tissue Surgery | PRP Treatment | Radiology

2972 Iris Ave, Boulder CO 80301 (303)-545-CASE (2273) ColoradoAnimalSpecialty.com