

ABQ Petcare is Hiring!

ABQ Pet Care Hospital in Albuquerque, NM is searching for an Associate Veterinarian to join their team at their newly renovated location that is equipped with 8 exam rooms, a surgical and dental suite, and an isolation ward. We look forward to hearing from you!

- Who We're Looking For: ABQ Petcare is looking to hire an associate who is looking for a long-term full-time or part-time position in a fast-paced team environment. We are looking for someone who wants to grow with us, is willing to learn, and share their knowledge. We want someone who wants to have fun at work and expand their medical and surgical skills. We are happy to consider both seasoned vets as well as new grads.
- What We Have To Offer: ABQ Petcare is open 8:00am-6:00pm Monday-Friday and offers flexible scheduling. We are closed on weekends as well as ALL major holidays. At our clinic you will find you have multiple opportunities for growth and mentorship. Candidates are allotted CE every year to continue their education. We have a dedicated staff of technicians, assistants and CSRs.
