

Title: Certified Veterinary Technician

Salary: DOE

Location: Scottsdale, AZ

Description:

Here is a rare opportunity for you to join the medical team at the award-winning Hillside Animal Hospital in Scottsdale! Our family-owned practice is currently seeking an experienced Certified Veterinary Technician who desires to work in a challenging and gratifying environment where performance is rewarded. Our upscale clientele understand the value of providing the best care possible for their beloved pets. We are AAHA certified, a Gold Level Practice by the AAFP and were named in the top Arizona Veterinary Hospitals in 2016.

Hillside Animal Hospital features state-of-the art equipment such as ultrasound, digital x-ray, endoscope and surgical laser, all giving our team the best tools available to provide superb care to pets.

Candidates who are highly experienced Certified Veterinary Technicians, thrive in a team-oriented environment, value continuing education, are self-motivated, and who aspire to function in a leadership role will have an edge. A solid track record of verifiable above-average job performance and teamwork is a must to be considered. The ideal candidate will have excellent client communication skills as well.

Hillside Animal Hospital's generous compensation package includes salary, paid time off, continuing education allowance, health/dental/vision benefits, and 401(k).

Are your talents and aspirations a match for this opportunity? If so, we want to hear from you! Please submit a resume with a brief cover letter telling us why this is a fabulous fit for your talents and aspirations. We look forward to hearing from you!