

New Lodging Patient Interview

Pet's Name: _____ Owner's Name(s): _____

Our primary concern is ensuring your pet's comfort while staying with us. This New Lodging Patient Interview will help us to provide the best experience for your pet while you are away.

In some instances, pets that are away from their normal routine and environment can develop ailments or become injured. Some examples would be diarrhea from a change in diet or anxiety, lack of appetite, no stool production, nervousness, environmental allergies, and minor trauma from play.

In the event a medical condition arises how would you prefer Lathrop Veterinary Center to proceed?
Lathrop Veterinary Center will ALWAYS attempt to contact the owner first.

Initial the SINGLE option that best fits your wishes

___ Lathrop Veterinary Center MAY NOT perform any medical diagnostics or treatments without receiving verbal approval from myself, others authorized to make medical decisions, or my emergency contacts. I understand that for a NON LIFE THREATENING event, my pet may experience discomfort or pain if I am not able to be reached. In an LIFE THREATENING event, this may lead to the death of my pet.

We reserve the right to prohibit admittance of pets displaying signs of untreated or potentially contagious conditions and/or aggressive behavior.

If an animal's reservation is extended and the lodge is booked, the animal will be transferred to stay in the hospital and charged hospitalization fees. By being in the hospital, lodging animals may be exposed to contagious diseases.

If an animal is not picked up within 24 days of the original departure date, then the animal is considered abandoned. Owners are responsible for all care charges up to 24 days post the original departure day. Lathrop Veterinary Center will attempt to find the animal a new home. If a new home cannot be found the pet may be euthanized.

By signing this agreement, the owner represents that he/she is the legal owner of said animal and has provided the most accurate information available. They also have provided Lathrop Veterinary Center permission to use photos of their pet for social media applications.
