ANIMAL HOSPITAL
& 24 HOUR EMERGENCY SERVICES

Veterinary Assistant

Mountainside Animal Hospital + 24 Hour Emergency is looking to grow our Veterinary Assistant team!

Under new management and leadership with our amazing Medical Director, Dr. Harry Cozens, and inspiring Hospital Director, Robyn Luscombe, Mountainside Animal Hospital and 24 Hour Emergency is continuing to grow and change. We are excited to add 1-2 more full-time or part-time Veterinary Assistants to our team to help us as we move in a very exciting direction.

Located in gorgeous, green and outdoor activity-rich North Vancouver, BC, our three story hospital offers a variety of extensive services and equipment surrounded by an incredible group of talented individuals who really are what make our hospital stand out. With a patient-first philosophy, we aim to make every client and team member feel like they are part of our family.

The Position:

We are searching for 1-2 full-time or part-time experienced Veterinary Assistants who are up for the fast paced and exiting challenge of emergency work to join our team. These positions are on a rotational basis, including weekends and overnights meaning your job is always changing and you never know what will come through the door next! Candidates must have previous veterinary industry experience and completion of a certified VOA program is preferred.

Why should you apply?

- Above average pay at $17-$24/hr (based on previous veterinary experience)
- $2 differential for overnight shifts on top of hourly base pay rate
- Excellent work/life balance with 3-4 days off each week
- Fun perks like bringing your dog to work, healthy snacks in the staff room and team events
- Great benefits package for full time staff and excellent staff discounts on food and services

- Beautiful work space, view and location that encourages a healthy lifestyle (think dog trails, mountains, fresh air!)
- Chance to challenge yourself and develop your skills
- A place to feel proud of and passionate about so you can look forward to coming to work every day
- A supportive and encouraging team environment where you feel valued and make life-long friends

Come join us and be a part of this exciting growth and new direction while advancing your own skills and experience!
