

Make driving to Europe a cruise in 2022

Driving to Europe this summer? After Brexit and Covid, there are some things you need to know about to make it a grand tour.

Use our handy checklist as a guide:

- 1 Check your British driving licence is still valid in the EU area
- 2 Make sure you have the right UK sticker on display here
- 3 Ensure insurance extends to driving in the EU
- 4 Take relevant driving documents (Driving Licence, Insurance Documents, V5C, VE103 – if needed) and required equipment including hi-vis jackets and warning triangles.
- 5 Get the VE103 off your supplier if your vehicle is hired or leased
- 6 Check you EHIC is still valid, or apply for a GHIC here
- 7 Find out if you need a visa if you're going for an extended time
- 8 To transport goods, find out what the requirements are here
- 9 Some Covid restrictions are still in place. Find out where here
- 10 Check your passport expiry date, and apply early if you need a new one!

Remember to always check for any country specific travel and vehicle requirements as these may be different across each European countries.
