

#EndBullying

Cyberbullying isn't just sending mean messages - it's being cruel, intentionally embarrassing or excluding someone, spreading rumours, sharing or liking humiliating photos, and more. It's up to all of us to help create a safer, friendlier digital space for everyone.

Did you know? 42% of Canadian youth have experienced cyberbullying at least once in the past 4 weeks.* Let's work together to #EndBullying and make it socially unacceptable.
