

Keeping students, educators and school communities all connected.

In the current landscape of physical distancing, access to fast, reliable connectivity has never been more essential. TELUS Internet for Good helps low-income families stay connected, empowering youth to safely learn from home.

Steps to access Internet for Good through schools in BC and AB:

Teachers identify families in need.

Families can express their need for Internet connectivity to their child's teacher or Principal.

Principals email the request to TELUS.

Principals can consolidate requests for their entire school and email InternetForGood@telus.com from their school email address requesting Internet for Good redemption codes for identified families in need.

Families order TELUS Internet for Good.

Families in need receive a redemption code from their school and call TELUS to set up their internet service.

What is TELUS Internet for Good for Students?

The TELUS Internet for Good program provides eligible low income families with low-cost Internet connectivity in BC and AB (where service is available):

- Select between Internet 25 for $9.95/month or Internet 50 for $19.95/month (plus applicable taxes) for 24 months; regular pricing thereafter
- Speeds of up to 25 Mbps or 50 Mbps (where available) depending on the plan you select. Both plans include unlimited monthly data
- No contract or cancellation fees
- Option to purchase a low cost refurbished computer through BC Technology for Learning Society

In light of the unprecedented COVID-19 health crisis, schools in BC and AB can extend our Internet for Good offer directly to students and families in need, via their school's Principal.

How can families sign up for TELUS Internet for Good for Students?

Families in need can reach out to their child's teacher or the school Principal. Principals can email TELUS at InternetForGood@telus.com, from their school district email address, requesting Internet for Good redemption codes for the specific number of families in need at their school. Once families receive a code from their school Principal, they can call TELUS at 1-866-835-8744 to redeem the offer.

Important note: Families who have a Canada Child Benefit (CCB) statement showing their net income of less than or equal to $31,120 can email TELUS directly at InternetforGood@telus.com with a copy of their statement and request for a program code. Other families who do not meet this criteria but are in need should discuss their situation directly with their child's teacher or principal who can request a code from TELUS on their behalf.

For more information about Internet for Good for Students, families are encouraged to contact their child's school.
