INTERIOR DESIGNER ROÍSÍN LAFFERTY DELIVERS AGELESS GLAMOUR USING BOLD COLOURS, SCALED-UP STONE AND RETRO ROSEWOOD

Powerful material connections deliberately teeter on the cusp of clashing in this 70s renovation in Ireland. ‘The clients had given us a blank canvas and were ready to embrace absolute boldness with colour, materials and texture,’ recalls Roísín. Her absolute favourite thing? ‘The sugary pink polished Cosmopolitan quartzite. This space is a rabbit hole of sensory stimulation.’ Bespoke kitchen in rosewood veneer with red powder-coated metal handles, designed by Kingston Lafferty Design; made by DFL. Bespoke 20mm-thick Cosmopolitan quartzite, Miller Brothers.
