

16 March 2020

As you will be aware, the government has issued new advice this afternoon about coronavirus.

The latest health advice from the NHS can be seen here, and includes new advice that anyone with symptoms, or a family member with symptoms, should stay at home for 14 days.

The government advice about coronavirus can be seen here.

This says everyone should stop non-essential contact with others and to stop all unnecessary travel.

The House of Commons is publishing daily updates on the parliamentary intranet.

As a result of this, the IPSA office will be closed and staff who are able to will be working from home.

Our phone lines will be closed.

There is information and guidance available on IPSA's website and Homepage.

For MP support and general enquiries, please email info@theipsa.org.uk

For payroll queries, please email payroll@theipsa.org.uk

For press queries, please email communications@theipsa.org.uk

If your enquiry is urgent, please write this in the subject line. If necessary we will call you back for urgent cases.

Please bear with us while our staff work hard to continue to provide you with the support you need. We apologise for the inconvenience.

Later this week we will write again with more information about special arrangements during this period.

IPSA