Magazzino Italian Art Throws a Kickoff Party for Upstate Art Weekend

On July 21, Magazzino Italian Art brought its founders, patrons, and friends together for Upstate Art Weekend’s largest edition to date. In addition to the summer art festival taking place across upstate New York, attendees also raised a glass—either from local brewery Industrial Arts, bubbles courtesy of Prosecco DOC, or Ritual Zero Proof non-alcoholic drinks—to the newly completed Robert Olnick Pavilion. Designed by architects Alberto Campo Baeza and Miguel Quismondo, it will open this September. Notables in attendance included: Giorgio Spanu, Vittorio Calabrese, Helen Toomer, Hannah Gottlieb-Graham, Kyle DeWoody, Miguel Quismondo, and Nancy Olnick.
