Letter from Mark Nerenhausen

My friends,

I come to you at the end of what has truly been an incredible year for Hennepin Theatre Trust. My heart is full of joy for all we have accomplished together in the Hennepin Theatre District.

This year saw us achieve landmark development as an organization throughout; we secured ownership of our historic theatres, and in doing so we have cemented the enduring impact our venues have on the cultural landscape of our community. Continuing the history of comedy on Hennepin Avenue, the Trust welcomed Brave New Workshop into the organization, renaming their performance space the Dudley Riggs Theatre to uphold the legacy of the troupe's founder and inventor of improv comedy. To conclude the fiscal year, I announced my retirement and, after a national search, passed the torch to Todd Duesing to take up leadership of the Theatre District.

As we close this chapter for the Trust, I look back not only at the last year, but at my 50-year career leading performing arts centers. I have been humbled and inspired by all of you—audience members, donors, patrons, sponsors, staff and friends. Together over the years, we have gathered to experience these timeless musicals and the stories they tell, finding joy, understanding and healing. I have been honored to experience the transformative power of the performing arts alongside each of you, and I look forward to all that is to come for Hennepin Theatre Trust. I do not have the words to express my appreciation for the experiences and memories I leave the field with. There truly is no business like show business—thank you for the career of a lifetime.

Sincerely,

Mark Nerenhausen
Former President and CEO

Note from Todd Duesing

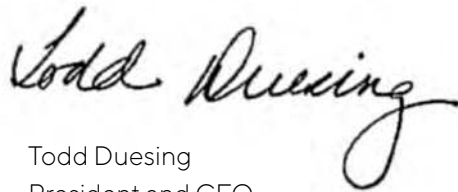

Dear friends,

I am filled with immense gratitude and humility as I begin my tenure as President and CEO of this remarkable civic organization. It is both a privilege and an honor to serve in this leadership role and I am truly excited to take the baton and lead a stellar group of innovators of new ideas, guardians of historic landmarks and drivers of economic and social change.

I humbly ask for your support throughout the journey ahead. I'm incredibly thankful to those who were instrumental in creating the Hennepin Theatre District we know today, and we will continue the legacy of inspiring theatregoers from across the state. It drives the cultural and economic vitality of the Theatre District and supports programming that transforms and inspires through the power of the arts.

As we embark on this new chapter to realize our bold vision for the Hennepin Theatre District, I look forward to all that the coming years have in store for us on this journey together.

Sincerely,

Todd Duesing
President and CEO

Happenings on Hennepin

Hennepin Theatre Trust poised to accelerate vision for Hennepin Theatre District after redeeming City-issued bonds for Orpheum, State and Pantages theatres and completing lease 13 years ahead of schedule

Minneapolis (Oct. 18, 2022) — Hennepin Theatre Trust has redeemed the bonds issued by the City of Minneapolis for the Orpheum, State and Pantages theatres, completing—13 years ahead of the schedule—the City’s original vision for the restoration and activation of the theatres. By redeeming the bonds, Hennepin Theatre Trust has completed the lease with the City and is now poised to accelerate its work as a major performing arts center in rejuvenating and driving the vitality of the Hennepin Theatre District in downtown Minneapolis.

“Since its founding, Hennepin Theatre Trust has been committed to the economic and cultural vitality of the District, the city and the state of Minnesota. The Trust has actively advanced the vision of the Hennepin Theatre District with world-class entertainment and large-scale public art installations, while making a difference in the lives of thousands of students across the state through musical theatre education programming. Thanks to our stable financial footing, Hennepin Theatre Trust has realized the original vision of the City of Minneapolis 13 years early, and we are now poised to accelerate the work we’ve been doing for the last six years as a civic institution and a nationally-recognized performing arts center in the heart of Minnesota.”

—Mark Nerenhausen, President and CEO of Hennepin Theatre Trust

President and CEO Mark Nerenhausen honored with President’s Award by Meet Minneapolis

Minneapolis (March 14, 2023) — Meet Minneapolis, the city’s convention and visitors association, awarded Hennepin Theatre Trust president and CEO Mark Nerenhausen with the President’s Award in recognition of his distinguished leadership of the Hennepin Theatre District in downtown Minneapolis.

“Since his arrival in Minneapolis, Mark has been a driving force for an organization that welcomes more than a half million visitors to Minneapolis each year to enjoy a positive experience downtown. Across its five historic venues in the Hennepin Theatre District, Hennepin Theatre Trust drives the vitality of downtown Minneapolis and the economic growth and prosperity of the state. Mark has been instrumental in the renovation and revitalization of Hennepin Avenue, building a vibrant, dynamic and welcoming historic Hennepin Theatre District for all. We are pleased to honor him with this well-deserved award.”

—Melvin Tennant, president and CEO of Meet Minneapolis

Hennepin Theatre Trust renames theatre on Hennepin Avenue as the Dudley Riggs Theatre, carrying on legacy of the Brave New Workshop comedy theatre’s founder

Minneapolis (Nov. 10, 2022) — Hennepin Theatre Trust announced that it has renamed the theatre located at 824 Hennepin Ave. as the Dudley Riggs Theatre. The name honors Dudley Riggs, the founder of satirical improvisational theater and founder of the Brave New Workshop, the nation’s oldest sketch comedy troupe.

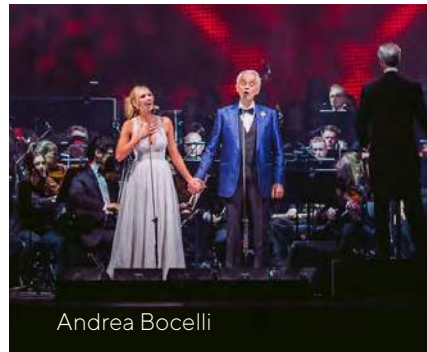

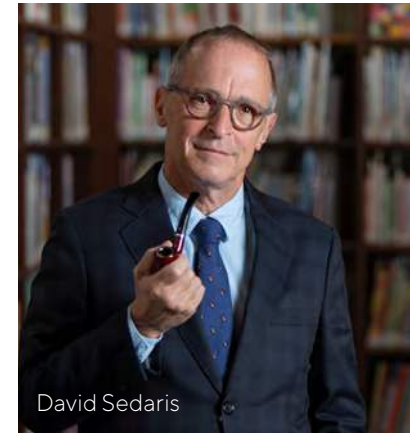

“I am absolutely delighted to hear that the building at 824 Hennepin Ave., where the Brave New Workshop continues to make us laugh, will now be named the Dudley Riggs Theatre. My deepest thanks to Hennepin Theatre Trust for this magnificent tribute to my late husband, Dudley Riggs, who brought Instant Theater to Minneapolis in 1958, beginning what became the Brave New Workshop and a thriving theater community here in the Twin Cities today. Knowing Dudley, he would have been humbled by this honor and amused that his name will remain on Hennepin Avenue, where it all began.”

—Dr. Pauline Boss, University of Minnesota professor emeritus and widow of Dudley Riggs

“Dudley was a true pioneer in improvisational comedy, bringing it to Minneapolis and providing me and Tom Davis, along with so many others, our starts. On top of that, a magnificent man and a true friend. Oh, and funny!”

—Al Franken, former United States Senator and Brave New Workshop alumnus.

Heard Around Town

"I was thrilled to be in the room where it happens to help welcome Hamilton to the Orpheum Theatre stage. This production captures the birth of the great American experiment in democracy and showcases some incredible talent. Live venues were among the first businesses to close down from the pandemic and the last to reopen, but we decided we couldn't let arts and culture die. Actors, stagehands, musicians, audiences, and organizations like the Hennepin Theatre Trust rallied behind my bipartisan bill, the Save Our Stages Act, to make the largest investment in the arts in American history and help theaters survive so we can continue to enjoy performances like Hamilton for generations to come."

— Senator Amy Klobuchar

"The arts are the heartbeat of our city. Hennepin Theatre Trust's Broadway season isn't just a series of shows, it's a critical industry to help revitalize downtown. Broadway's presence downtown makes Minneapolis a destination for theatregoers from across the region—and helps create a vibrant and welcoming place for all. Arts aren't just an amenity, they're a necessity to the identity of our city."

—Minneapolis Mayor Jacob Frey

"I could rave about Spotlight for the rest of my life. I don't think I would be able to achieve the sort of success I've been getting now if I hadn't been a part of a program like Spotlight."

—Christine Heesun Hwang, Spotlight alum and Éponine in the touring Broadway production of *Les Misérables

"This portrait means community and family. When I saw it, I just saw pure love."

—Jonathan Thomas, It's the People subject

"Performing my school medley at Showcase was probably the best experience I've ever had onstage."

—Spotlight Education alum

"I create art that actively decolonizes and breaks down the colonial borders that we have. I love We Are Still Here because they believe that Natives should be the drivers of our own narrative."

—Jerica Fountain, We Are Still Here 2022-2023 Cohort mentee

"The work you do is so integral to the community and the lives of our youth, and I'm glad to do my part to support your service in whatever way I can. Your work promotes the necessary cultural opportunities that allows our youth and larger community to thrive."

—Senator D. Scott Dibble

"As an independent journalist and photographer, being featured as a subject is letting me know that my work is not in vain."

—King Demetrius Pendleton, It's the People subject

"Spotlight Education provides incredible opportunities for my students in so many more ways than I had ever hoped. Hennepin Theatre Trust's public recognition helps us, as directors, to keep advocating for arts education. That dedication and growth can provide confidence, skills, empathy, understanding, curiosity, leadership, memories and rewards that last a lifetime."

—Amy Monson, theater director for Mayo High School in Rochester, Minnesota

Hennepin Theatre Trust is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization. Thanks to our supporters, we are able to instill confidence and community connection in more than 8,000 students statewide through our arts education programs, elevate and financially support the creative works of local artists and provide meaningful arts and cultural experiences to the more than 600,000 people we bring to the Hennepin Theatre District annually.

This activity is made possible by the voters of Minnesota through a Minnesota State Arts Board Operating Support grant, thanks to a legislative appropriation from the arts and cultural heritage fund.
