April 2024   Arbor Lodge Newsletter

April Neighborhood Meeting

Our next monthly Arbor Lodge Neighborhood Association (ALNA) meeting is Thursday, April 18, 2024, 7:00-8:30pm, at the Historic Kenton Firehouse, 8105 N Brandon, or via Zoom.

- Topics include: Arbor Lodge Shelter Updates & Open House, Community Budgeting for All, Area business updates, District 2 updates, Delitter Arbor Lodge, Arbor Lodge Survey. See full agenda

Arbor Lodge Shelter Open House

Join Multnomah County Leaders, Do Good Multnomah, Arbor Lodge Neighborhood Association, Kenton Neighborhood Association, and other community partners on Thursday, April 24, 2024, 4pm-6pm to celebrate the Grand Opening of the Arbor Lodge Shelter at 1952 N. Lombard. The shelter has been closed for construction, and will be opening for services in the near future.

Community Budgeting for All

Join us at the April neighborhood meeting to learn more about the work of Community Budgeting for All (CBA) campaign to provide all Portland residents with the opportunity to actively shape 2% of the city's budget. Learn more at these links:

- Real Power over Real Money: Participatory Budgeting
- Next Generation Democracy- Elected Officials Share their Experience with Participatory Budgeting
- Proposed 1-page charter amendment

Help Wanted

Wish there were more events in Arbor Lodge? Volunteer to help make them happen. The Arbor Lodge Neighborhood Association is an all-volunteer run community organization and we'd love to bring even more events to the neighborhood with your help. Just hit reply and let us know!

Energy Saving Tip

EnergyTrust Oregon shares tips and resources to help neighbors save energy and money.

- Check out the EnergyTrust Community Resources page for energy and weatherization programs available to the community.
- For homeowners, consider doing a Home Assessment.

April-May Events

See the North Portland Events Calendar: https://arborlodgepdx.org/calendar

- Apr 13: St Johns Spring Clean, N Charleston & N Central. (9am-1pm)
- Apr 13: Overlook Neighborhood Spring Cleaning, Beach Elementary, 1710 N Humboldt (10am-12pm)
- Apr 13: Seismic Tremors and Toxics, NW Toxic Communities Coalition Summit. (9:30am-1:30pm)
- Apr 13: FY 2024-25 Budget Community Listening Session, City of Portland, online. (10am-12pm)
- Apr 15: FY 2024-25 Budget Community Listening Session, City of Portland, online. (6:30-8:30pm)
- Apr 15: Taxes Due (Including the Portland Arts Tax)
- Apr 15: Portland Parks Foundation Joey Pope Award for Parks Leadership nomination deadline
- Apr 18-20: The Jefferson Dancers. Newmark Theater.
- Apr 24: Arbor Lodge Shelter Open House with guest speakers, site tours, and more, 1952 N Lombard. (4-6pm)
- Apr 24: Portland Noise Program meeting on amending Title 18 Noise Code. Written comments can be submitted to noise@portlandoregon.gov with the subject "My experience with the Noise Code". Meeting hosted via Zoom. (5:30-7pm)
- Apr 25: Music That Makes You Laugh. University of Portland, Mago Hunt Recital Hall. Free and open to all. (7pm)
- Apr 27: St Johns Spring Fling and Day of the Children (Dia de Los Niños), St. Johns Plaza. (11am-2pm)
- Apr 30: Public meeting for proposed mural for west-facing wall of Fang! Pet & Garden Supply, corner of Lombard & Drummond. Zoom (7pm)
- May 2: Last day to complete the Portland Urban Forest Plan Survey by Portland Parks & Recreation.
- May 11: St Johns Parade

Ongoing Events

- Arbor Beer Lodge, 6550 N Interstate, has live music, trivia, and more.
- Arborlook Carts, 5916 N Greeley, continues their weekly movie nights.

Around the Neighborhood

- Volunteer opportunity: Portland Committee on Community-Engaged Policing (PCCEP)
- Volunteer opportunity: Portland Citizen Review Committee
- Overlook is getting a new N Delaware greenway
- Katu: Portland put costly corner improvements on business owner despite upcoming state project.
- Kenton may soon get a new restaurant in the old Swift & Union space
- The new PDX terminal is now set to open in August.

Learn more at arborlodgepdx.org. Questions? community@arborlodgepdx.org