I understand that:

- Eli Lilly and Company will decide if I qualify for the Lilly Maine Insulin State Patient Assistance Program™ (“Program”). I understand that my application might not be approved.
- The Program may be changed or terminated, or my enrollment in the Program may be terminated, at any time.
- If my enrollment in the Program is approved, the Program will send me a Statement of Eligibility.
- If I am denied enrollment in the Program, the Program will send me a Notification of Denial.
- The Program does NOT charge a fee for participation in the Program, but my pharmacy may collect a co-payment not to exceed $50 for a 90-day supply of insulin.
- If approved, my enrollment in the Program will expire after 12 months. After my enrollment expires, I will need to re-apply to the Program.
- The Lilly Maine Insulin State Patient Assistance Program™ does not charge a fee to apply for participation in the Program. I am not required to use a third party who charges a fee to help with my enrollment, and if I use a third party who charges a fee to help with my enrollment or refills of my medication, this money is not paid to the Lilly Maine Insulin State Patient Assistance Program™.

I certify (agree) that:

- I am a resident of the state of Maine.
- I meet the qualifications to be eligible for the Program, as outlined in this application.
- My application is complete and accurate. I have been truthful about my insurance coverage and my household income.
- I have provided (or promptly will provide) the necessary documentation, outlined in this application, to assess my eligibility for the Program. I will promptly provide additional documentation, if needed and requested by the Program, to assess my eligibility. I understand that a delay in submitting necessary documentation may result in a delay in determining my eligibility, termination of my application, or termination from the Program.
- If my application is approved:
  - o I will notify the Program of changes to my income or insurance status.
  - o I will not submit any claim for reimbursement to any third party or government insurer for any product provided to me through the Program.
  - o If I have Medicare Part D coverage, I will inform my Part D Plan about my enrollment in the Program, and I will not seek to have the cost/value associated with the medication I receive through the Program counted as out-of-pocket costs for prescription drugs.
  - o I will not sell, trade, or transfer any medication I receive through the Program.
  - o I will comply with the rules of the Program, including those outlined in the Maine law.

I certify and agree to the above Lilly Maine Insulin State Patient Assistance Program™ Terms and Conditions.

PATIENT HIPAA AUTHORIZATION

PLEASE FAX TO:
1-833-200-6304

PP-RC-US-2046 03/2024 ©Lilly USA, LLC 2024. All rights reserved.

Before the Lilly Maine Insulin State Patient Assistance Program™ can start helping you, Lilly may ask for some information about you and your health from your Health Care Entities (as defined below). This is known as your Protected Health Information, or PHI. By signing this form, you understand and agree that your PHI may be shared with or used by Lilly as explained below.

PHI includes information like:

- Your health insurance or benefits, including how much coverage you have
- All records about your treatment
- Whether you're staying on your medicine or treatment

If you agree, your PHI may be shared by these entities (together "Health Care Entities"):

- Your doctors and other healthcare providers
- Your healthcare plan or health insurance company
- Clearinghouses or other agents
- Your pharmacy
- Others who might have your PHI on behalf of your healthcare providers, pharmacies and healthcare plans

Your PHI is used in ways like these:

- To learn how much of your Lilly treatment is covered by your insurance
- To help you find other ways to afford your treatment
- To track your use of your Lilly treatment
- To share information with your healthcare provider
- To make sure that you receive high-quality services from the program
- To measure program performance and make program improvements
- Internal Lilly use of data to drive business decisions and metrics on hub performance
- Reports to our sales force regarding HCP use of hub services
- Conversations/messages to your HCP regarding trends and hub performance

Other things you should know about sharing and using your PHI:

- We only ask for and share the PHI that we need to provide the benefits you want. We do not ask for any PHI that we do not need, but we may receive some in the health records sent to us. Your PHI will be released to Eli Lilly and Company and Lilly USA, LLC and its affiliates, agents, representatives, and service providers (together "Lilly").
- You don't have to give permission to share your PHI with Lilly to receive treatment from your healthcare providers, your prescription from your pharmacy, or benefits from your healthcare plan, but the Lilly Maine Insulin State Patient Assistance Program™ may not be able to help you without it
- After your PHI has been shared, it may no longer be covered by federal and state privacy laws (such as HIPAA), and it may be shared again with others by Lilly
- Your signed permission to share and use your PHI lasts for 3 years from the date of your signature unless you are a resident of Maryland, Maine, or Montana, in which case the permission will last for 1 year from the date of your signature. In either case, you may revoke your permission before then by writing to PO Box 501847, Rancho Bernardo, CA 92150, which will preclude reliance on the authorization after the date your written revocation is received
- Your healthcare providers (such as pharmacies) may be paid by us in exchange for sharing your PHI. They may also be paid by us to use your PHI to provide services, such as contacting you about Lilly products
- You can stop sharing your PHI with us or change what you share by calling us at 1-855-447-8412, or by writing us at PO Box 501847, Rancho Bernardo, CA 92150
- Your cancellation or revocation of this Authorization will be effective when your Health Care Entities receive notice of your cancellation or revocation, and will not apply to any information shared with Lilly by your Health Care Entities prior to the time those Health Care Entities receive notice

By signing this form, I attest that I have read and agree to the Patient HIPAA Authorization. I understand I am entitled to a copy of this signed Authorization.

Privacy Notice:

This Privacy Notice (“Notice”) is intended to supplement the Eli Lilly and Company Privacy Statement (<https://privacynotice.lilly.com>) and the Consumer Health Privacy Notice (<https://www.lillyhub.com/legal/lillyusa/CHPN.html>) that can be accessed in the footers of Lilly’s websites. This Notice is to provide you with information about the personal information, including health information, we may collect, use, disclose or otherwise process, and your rights and choices with respect to your information.

The categories of health information we collect will depend on how you interact with Lilly Services and the information you choose to provide. We may collect:

- Health conditions, treatments, diseases, or diagnosis
- Social, psychological, behavioral, and medical interventions
- Health-related surgeries or procedures
- Use or purchase of prescribed medication
- Bodily functions, vital signs, symptoms, or measurements of other types of consumer health data
- Diagnoses or diagnostic testing, treatment, or medication
- Reproductive or sexual health information
- Biometric data
- Genetic data
- Data that identifies a consumer seeking health care services
- Other information that may be used to infer or derive data related to the above or other health information.

With your consent, we may use the health information we collect for the following purposes, as further described in our privacy statements:

- Providing Services and support.
- Analytics and improvement.
- Customization and personalization.
- Marketing and advertising.
- Security and protection of rights.
- Legal proceedings and obligations.
- General business and operational support.

Lilly does not sell or share your health information with third parties without your consent or authorization. We may disclose health information to our processors for our business purposes or at your direction to provide you with products and Services that you request.

We may use and save your personal information to meet legal or regulatory obligations that are in the legitimate interest of Lilly, to fulfill legitimate and lawful business purposes in accordance with Lilly’s record retention policies and applicable laws and regulations, and to respond to lawful requests by public authorities, including to comply with national security or law enforcement requests.

Some of this personal information may be considered sensitive under applicable laws, such as information about your health or medical diagnosis and demographic information collected in some circumstances, such as race, ethnic origin, and sexual orientation. We may process your sensitive PI with your consent, or as otherwise permitted by law.

Upon verification, you have rights with respect to the collection, use and storage of your information. These rights may include access to your information and how it is being used or shared, the right to correct, delete or limit use of your information or to withdraw consent for us to collect and use your information. There may be certain exceptions and limitations that apply to your request including the right to have your information transmitted to another entity or person in a machine-readable format. To exercise your rights, you or your authorized representative may submit a request to datarights@lilly.com or 1-800-Lilly-Rx (1-800-545-5979). You will not be discriminated against for exercising any of your rights. You may be entitled, in accordance with applicable law, to appeal a refusal to take action on your request. To do so, please contact us by using one of the methods listed here or in How to Contact Us section of the online Privacy Statement.

If you wish to raise a complaint on how we have handled your personal information, you can contact the Global Privacy Office and Data Protection Officer at privacy@lilly.com, who will investigate the matter. If you are not satisfied with our response or have any concerns about how your data is being processed, you can register a complaint with a relevant regulatory authority (e.g., a Data Protection Authority (DPA) or Attorney General).
