GDIT

How to Own Your Opportunity at GDIT

At GDIT, every decision we make has people at the center. We offer transparency into our hiring process by outlining the journey you'll experience as a candidate at GDIT.

Apply Here

Your journey begins with you finding the right opportunity at GDIT and applying directly on our website at gdit.com/careers.

Resume Review

Your resume is reviewed by one of our recruiters to assess if you may be a potential fit for the role. We will notify you if not, however encourage you to search for additional opportunities at GDIT.

Phone Screen

Speak with a GDIT recruiter to learn more about our culture, the role, and the client's mission. We want to gain a sense of your qualifications for the job, if you will thrive in our culture, and if should advance to interview.

Interview

You'll receive details from your recruiter for your interview with the hiring manager. Be prepared to discuss your experience, expertise, and come prepared to ask questions about GDIT and the role.

Interview feedback

We know how valuable feedback is and when possible, will provide interview feedback. We also encourage you to share feedback with us to help us continue to improve our candidate experience.

Offer

Congratulations! If you receive an offer, it typically takes just over a week from the time you interview. We encourage you to ask any questions before you accept.

Preparing to join GDIT

Background checks and drug screens are required for new employees. This typically takes a couple weeks and is essential to ensuring the safety and security of our people, clients and work.

Your start date

Start the countdown! Once you've officially cleared all of your security checks and completed your paperwork, we will set your official start date. You'll receive detailed instructions on what to expect on your first day.

Welcome to GDIT

You will engage in an orientation where you'll learn more about GDIT and our culture. We encourage you ask questions, and utilize the resources and programs tailored to help you deliver your best.

Own Your Opportunity at GDIT, by visiting the careers website today.
gdit.com/careers