AUSTIN, Texas / SAN FRANCISCO (June 1, 2020) – Today, peer-to-peer RV rental marketplace RVshare announced the company's official cleaning partner, TaskRabbit. TaskRabbit will help match RV owners with local cleaning pros – individual contractors called Taskers – to effectively clean their RVs pre- and post-rental. The partnership comes at a time when disinfecting vehicles in accordance with CDC and WHO guidelines is more important than ever amidst the Coronavirus pandemic.

RVshare, which lists more than 100,000 RVs across the country, has developed resources for owners, including tips on how to properly clean surfaces and disinfect vehicles thoroughly. Now TaskRabbit gives owners easy access to a pool of skilled Tasker cleaners across the country who can help them keep their RVs clean and safe. The TaskRabbit service is an elective resource for owners. The price of cleaning varies by location, vehicle type, and job scope.

“Our top priority is to keep our travelers and owners safe,” said CEO of RVshare Jon Gray. “We are always looking for ways to better support our owners. As a marketplace, we look to provide them with resources that help them run a safer and more efficient business.”

RVshare has seen a significant increase in demand for RV rentals with bookings increasing more than 1,000% since early April. With more and more people traveling via recreational vehicles, the company will continue to assess how to provide the best experience for renters and owners.
