7.1 Communications shall be made by any method that the Bank may specify in the Market Notice, the Operating Procedures or otherwise.

7.2 The Bank shall be entitled without further enquiry to accept and act on any request, instruction or other communication or purported request, instruction or other communication received by the Bank notwithstanding that it may afterwards be discovered that that request, instruction or other communication was made in error, was not genuine or was not authorised by the Counterparty or (if sent electronically) was not initiated through the terminal and associated equipment from which it was purported to have been sent. Any such request, instruction or other communication on which the Bank so acts shall for all purposes of the Documentation be treated as effective and binding on the Counterparty in accordance with its terms and, accordingly, neither the Bank nor any of its servants or agents, shall incur any liability or be responsible for any Loss, damage, expense or claim whatsoever by reason of so acting except to the extent that such Loss, claim or expense is shown to be attributable to wilful default or reckless disregard of the Bank's obligations on the part of the Bank or its servants or agents. Neither the Bank nor any of its servants or agents shall be liable for any loss of business, loss of profit or consequential damage of any kind whatsoever.

7.3 The Counterparty understands that email (whether encrypted or unencrypted) is not a secure method of communication and that messages so delivered may be intercepted, lost, destroyed, corrupted or delayed in transmission.

7.4 The Counterparty hereby agrees that:

- (a) neither the Bank, nor any of its representatives or agents shall incur any liability or be responsible for any Loss, that may arise in connection with the Bank sending or receiving any email (encrypted or unencrypted), except to the extent that such Loss is shown to be attributable to wilful default or reckless disregard of the Bank's obligations on the part of the Bank or its representatives and agents; and

- (b) it shall on demand indemnify the Bank and keep the Bank indemnified against any Loss suffered or incurred by the Bank as a result of any email (encrypted or unencrypted) which is intercepted, lost, destroyed, corrupted or delayed or otherwise distorted or altered during the course of transmission except to the extent that such Loss is shown to be attributable to wilful default or reckless disregard of the Bank's obligations on the part of the Bank or its representatives and agents.

7.5 The Counterparty undertakes at all times:

- (a) to procure that all requests, instructions and other communications are made or given by persons who are duly authorised to make or give them on its behalf and are within the scope of the authority of the person making or giving them;
- (b) to provide the Bank upon request with a list of all persons who are for the time being authorised to send requests, instructions and other communications by email transmission relating to Transactions or otherwise relating to the matters to which the Documentation relates and with such particulars with respect to such persons as may from time to time be specified by the Bank in the Market Notice, the Operating Procedures or otherwise;

8. NOTICES

8.1 Subject to clause 8.1(a), any notice required to be given under the Documentation shall be deemed to be duly served if left at or sent by electronic mail or other electronic means, in the case of a notice to the Bank at the Bank of England, Threadneedle Street, London EC2R 8AH, e-mail address CCFFNotice@bankofengland.co.uk, marked for the attention of the Senior Manager, Operational Policy, or to such other address as the Bank may notify to the Counterparty in writing, and in the case of notice to the Counterparty at the address or e-mail address notified by the Counterparty to the Bank in writing from time to time. Any such notice shall be deemed to be duly served:

- (a) if left at the address of the Party to be served, at the time when it is so left (or, if it is left on a day that is not a Business Day, at 8.15 a.m. on the next following Business Day); and
- (b) if sent by electronic mail, when the message is received.

8.2 In proving the giving of a notice under clause 8.1 it shall be sufficient to prove that the notice was delivered at the address for service.

8.3 The Market Notice or the Operating Procedures may provide for any notice to be given orally, including by telephone; any such notice shall be deemed to be served when it is actually given.

8.4 Where in these Terms and Conditions any matter may be specified or prescribed by the Bank, then the Bank may (but shall not be obliged to) do so by way of a Market Notice.

9. COSTS AND EXPENSES

9.1 The Counterparty agrees to pay and bear its own costs and expenses incurred in connection with the preparation and execution of the Documentation and the entering into of each Transaction.

9.2 The Counterparty indemnifies and agrees to pay or reimburse on demand to the Bank and CCFFL all of its costs and expenses (including legal expenses) together with any value added tax thereon, incurred in connection with the enforcement of any of their rights under the Documentation or any Transaction.

9.3 The Counterparty agrees on demand to pay the Bank's charges and reimburse the Bank for all fees, costs, charges and other expenses (including, without limitation, any third party custody or settlement or clearing system or depository charges for any assets, costs incurred in connection with checking that assets are eligible for the CCFF and valuing assets, internal costs and expenses (including staff salary costs), legal expenses, transfer taxes, value added tax, registration charges and other similar taxes and charges) incurred by the Bank in connection with the CCFF and any Transaction hereunder, and as may be more particularly set out in the Operating Procedures.

10. OPERATING PROCEDURES AND MARKET NOTICE

10.1 These Terms and Conditions are supplemented by the Operating Procedures, which set out further terms governing the Transactions and explain the procedures involved and may also be supplemented by Market Notices.

10.2 In the event of any conflict between the terms of these Terms and Conditions and the terms of the Operating Procedures or Admission Letter, these Terms and Conditions shall prevail.

10.3 In the event of any conflict between the terms of the Operating Procedures, Admission Letter or these Terms and Conditions and any Market Notice, the Market Notice shall prevail.

11. AMENDMENTS

The Bank may amend these Terms and Conditions and any other part of the Documentation either generally or in particular circumstances, from time to time. Any such amendment shall apply with effect from such time as may be specified by the Bank and shall unless otherwise specified apply to any Transaction which is outstanding at the time that such amendment is made. The Bank may also vary the operational timetable or vary or omit any of the procedures described on any particular day. The Bank will endeavour to give reasonable notice of any amendment but reserves the right to introduce any amendment with immediate effect, if the Bank considers it necessary to do so.

12. COMMENCEMENT, SUSPENSION AND TERMINATION

12.1 These Terms and Conditions commence on the date of receipt by the Counterparty of the Admission Letter.

12.2 A Counterparty may terminate its status as a counterparty in the CCFF at any time by giving to the Bank not less than ten Business Days' prior notice in writing (such termination becoming effective upon expiry of such notice).

12.3 The Bank may suspend for such period as the Bank thinks fit or terminate the Counterparty's status as a counterparty in the CCFF at any time at its absolute discretion.

12.4 Any termination under clause 12.2 or 12.3 shall not affect any Transaction which is then outstanding, and the provisions of the Documentation shall continue to apply to each such Transaction until all the obligations of each Party to the others under the Documentation and each such Transaction have been fully performed.

13. PAYMENTS AND DELIVERIES

13.1 Save as otherwise provided in the Documentation, all payments under or in connection with these Terms and Conditions shall be in immediately available freely convertible funds and made in sterling and, save as otherwise provided or specified by the Bank, all payments shall be made on the due date for payment thereof free from set-off or counterclaim and without deduction or withholding for or on account of any taxes of whatsoever nature imposed, levied collected, withheld or assessed, unless such a deduction or withholding is required by law.

13.2 In the event of such a deduction or withholding, the amount of any payment due from the Counterparty shall be increased to an amount which (after making any such deduction or withholding) leaves the Bank with a net amount equal to the amount which would have been due if no such deduction or withholding had been required to be made.

13.3 The Counterparty shall (within three Business Days of demand by the Bank) indemnify the Bank and CCFFL against any Loss, liability or cost which the Bank (in its absolute discretion) determines will be or has been (directly or indirectly) suffered by the Bank or CCFFL for or on account of tax in relation to a payment received or receivable (or any payment deemed to be received or receivable) under or in connection with any Transaction, except to the extent that the Loss has been compensated for by an increased payment under clause 13.2.

13.4 Save as otherwise provided in these Terms and Conditions, if any amount payable under these Terms and Conditions would, but for this clause, be payable on a day which is not a Business Day, then such payment shall be made on the next following Business Day.

13.5 All right, title and interest in any asset purchased under these Terms and Conditions shall pass from one Party to the other on transfer in accordance with the terms of these Terms and Conditions free from all liens (other than a lien granted to the operator of the clearance system through which the assets are transferred), claims, charges and encumbrances. The Parties shall execute and deliver all documents, give all instructions and do all things necessary to ensure that title passes in accordance with this clause.

13.6 The Bank may and, with the prior approval of the Bank, the Counterparty may combine in a single calculation of a net sum payable by one Party to the other all amounts in the same currency payable by each Party to the other under any Transaction or otherwise under these Terms and Conditions on the same date and the obligation to pay that net sum shall be the only obligation of either Party in respect of those amounts.

13.7 A transfer of assets by the Counterparty under any Transaction shall be effected by transfer to such account as the Bank may specify, being an account at the Bank or at a sub-custodian of the Bank.

14. SET-OFF

14.1 Without prejudice to any other rights, powers or remedies (whether provided by contract, law or otherwise), the Bank may without prior notice to the Counterparty set off any monies due and payable (but not paid) from the Counterparty and any other obligation to CCFFL or to the Bank against any obligation owed by CCFFL or, as the case may be, the Bank to the Counterparty (in either case, whether or not matured or contingent and whether or not arising under these Terms and Conditions), regardless of the place of payment, booking branch or currency of either obligation. If the obligations are in different currencies, the Bank may convert either obligation at a market rate of exchange in its usual course of business for the purpose of the set-off.

14.2 For the purposes of clause 14.1, where a liability or an obligation is unascertained, or is an obligation other than an obligation to pay money, the Bank may in good faith estimate the value of that liability or obligation and set off in respect of the estimate.

15. CONFIDENTIALITY

15.1 Each Party (the Recipient) undertakes to keep confidential all information given to it by the other Party (the Disclosing Party) or otherwise in the possession of the Recipient relating to or otherwise concerning the Disclosing Party or the CCFF (which shall include, without limitation, access to and participation in the CCFF, details of any Transaction and any decision by either Party to enter into or not to enter into any Transaction or to terminate any Transaction or any part of any Transaction).

15.2 The undertakings in clause 15.1 above will not apply to information which:

- (g) is disclosed in confidence to a member of the same Group as the Recipient and provided that, where reasonably practicable, the Recipient making such disclosure has notified the Disclosing Party in advance of the proposed form, timing, nature and purpose of the disclosure;
- (h) is required to be disclosed by law, regulation or any governmental or competent regulatory authority, whether in the United Kingdom or elsewhere, provided that, save in the case of a disclosure made by the Bank which falls within clause 15.3, the Recipient making such disclosure has promptly notified the Disclosing Party in advance of the proposed form, timing, nature and purpose of the disclosure. The Recipient shall not be required to make such a notification to the Disclosing Party where such notification would cause the Recipient to be in breach of applicable law or regulation, provided that the Recipient makes a notification to the Disclosing Party as soon as such notification would no longer result in a breach of law or regulation; or
- (i) is disclosed to any third party service provider which the Recipient has engaged to provide storage, recovery and back up services in relation to data and systems, provided that (i) the disclosure is for the sole purpose of that third party service provider providing such storage, recovery and back up services; (ii) each such third party service provider agrees to maintain the confidentiality of such information; and (iii) the Recipient remains liable to the Disclosing Party for the confidentiality of all such information in accordance with the Terms and Conditions.

15.3 In circumstances where the Counterparty is acting as dealer for an Issuer, nothing in this clause 15 shall preclude the Counterparty or any of its officers or employees from disclosing information to that Issuer.

15.4 Nothing in this clause 15 shall preclude the disclosure of information in any case in which disclosure is made by the Bank, CCFFL or any of their respective officers or employees:

- (a) in the course of any disclosure relating to the CCFF; provided that such disclosure does not identify or name: (i) the Counterparty; and (ii) in circumstances where the Counterparty acts as dealer for an Issuer, that Issuer;

- (c) for the purposes of any criminal investigation whatever which is being or may be carried out or of any criminal proceedings whatever which have been or may be initiated, in either case whether in the United Kingdom or elsewhere; or
- (d) for the purpose of enabling or assisting the Bank to discharge its functions as a monetary authority.

15.5 The Parties agree that damages may not be an adequate remedy for any breach of this clause 15 by any Party or any of its directors, officers, employees, agents, sub-contractors, affiliates, professional advisers or auditors and the Parties shall be entitled to seek any legal or equitable relief, including injunction, in the event of any breach of the provisions of this Clause 15.

16. TIME OF THE ESSENCE

Time shall be of the essence in the Documentation.

17. LEGAL RELATIONSHIP

No provision of the Documentation shall be deemed to create or evidence a partnership between any of the Parties or, save in relation to CCFFL and the Bank, make any Party the agent of another Party for any purpose.

18. THE BANK'S DISCRETIONS

Subject to the express terms thereof, any liberty or power which may be exercised or any determination which may be made under the Documentation by the Bank (including without limitation, any act, matter or thing as agreed, specified, determined, decided or notified by the Bank to the Counterparty) may be exercised or made generally or in relation to one or more Counterparties and in the absolute and unfettered discretion of the Bank from time to time, which shall not be under any obligation to give reasons therefor.

19. CONTRACTS (RIGHTS OF THIRD PARTIES) ACT 1999

A person who is not a party to the Documentation shall have no right under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 to enforce any of its terms.

20. GOVERNING LAW

The Documentation and each Transaction and any non-contractual obligations arising out of or in relation to the Documentation and any Transaction shall be governed by and construed in accordance with English law.

21. JURISDICTION

21.1 The English courts shall (subject to clauses 21.2 and 21.3 below) have exclusive jurisdiction in relation to all disputes (including claims for set-off and counterclaims) arising out of or in connection with: (i) the creation, validity, effect, interpretation, performance or non-performance of, or the legal relationships established by the Documentation or any Transaction; and (ii) any non-contractual obligations arising out of or in connection with the Documentation or any Transaction. For such purposes the Bank and the Counterparty irrevocably submit to the jurisdiction of the English courts and waive any objection to the exercise of such jurisdiction.

21.2 The provision contained in clause 21.1 above, is included for the benefit of the Bank and CCFFL. Accordingly, notwithstanding the exclusive agreement in clause 21.11 above the Bank and CCFFL shall retain the right to bring proceedings in any other court which has jurisdiction by virtue of Council Regulation EC No. 44/2001 of 22 December 2000 on jurisdiction and the recognition and enforcement of judgments in civil and commercial matters, the Convention on Jurisdiction and the Enforcement of Judgments signed on 27 September 1968, or the Convention on Jurisdiction and Enforcement of Judgments signed on 16 September 1988.

22. AGENT FOR SERVICE OF PROCESS

If the Counterparty has no registered office or place of business in England, it shall appoint and maintain to act as its agent for service of process a person with an address for service in England and shall notify the Bank of the name and address of such person. If the agent at any time ceases to act as such, the Counterparty shall appoint a replacement agent having an address for service in England and shall notify the Bank of the name and address of the replacement agent.
