Our story

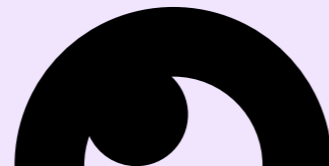

At Nyaal Banyul, we welcome you to the waterfront of Wadawurrung land to continue the traditions of knowledge-sharing and gathering spanning thousands of generations.

Deeply embedded in layers of Country, Nyaal Banyul immerses you in the sky, sea, and land. Come and experience the transformative power of discovery and connection and share new perspectives in Geelong's newest venue.

So come gather with us.
 Open your eyes to the hills.
 Open your heart to community.
 Open your mind to a new perspective.

The meaning behind our name

Nyaal Banyul, which translates to ‘open your eyes to the hills,’ was generously gifted to our venue by the Wadawurrung People, the Traditional Owners of the land.

Wadawurrung People have always come together for gatherings, cultural business, celebrations and ceremonies. In Wadawurrung language these gatherings are known as baierr. For thousands of generations, they have gathered on the Western Cliffs of Djilang (Geelong) for baierr – to yarn, celebrate, make decisions, solve problems, and pass on knowledge.

Visitors to Nyaal Banyul are invited to open their eyes to the hills of Wadawurrung Country. In all directions, the hills hold the stories, songs and dance of past baierr.
