

New store opening in Celle and reopening in Kitzbühel

Two DEPOT stores launching at the start of the year

Niedernberg, February 8th, 2022 - Berlin, Münster, Offenburg and Duisburg: DEPOT celebrated the openings of four new stores at the end of the year. And to kick off the new year, the leading decor and furnishing specialist is continuing the course, with modern stores in highly-attractive locations offering inspiring designs and an inviting furnishing concept. As of February 10th, 2022, we're happy to say: Welcome to DEPOT in Celle, as well as in Kitzbühel!

Shopping experience in a historic setting

A modern ambiance in a historic building: An old pharmacy cabinet, which is a historical artifact, was integrated into the shop fitting for the newly opened store in Celle. Located on lively Zöllnerstraße - an attraction in this historic Lower Saxon district city, our 450 square meter DEPOT store will amaze you with its huge product range.

New store concept in Kitzbühel in 450 square meters

An open store concept with a cozy, stylish ambiance. After a full renovation, the store in the chic Austrian town of Kitzbühel has an brand-new DEPOT look. Locals and tourists alike from all over the world will enjoy the wide-ranging selection of accessories, gifts, decorative items, and furnishings in the 450 square meter store, in a coveted location on popular Jochberger Straße.
