TASTE THEATRE

Enrich your wine knowledge with a masterclass in our Taste Theatre. Learn from some of the wine world's most passionate experts as they take to the stage to enlighten and entertain.

Find out why English fizz is on such a roll from Harrow & Hope sparkling maestro, Henry Laithwaite and special guests. TV's 'Mr Wine', Oz Clarke – fresh from a fact-finding mission to South America – will be shining a light on why Chile, Argentina and Uruguay are producing such magnificent wines.

Oz will also be examining the earliest evidence of winemaking and tracking its progress through to the vast array of delicious styles we have today. And Sunday Times wine columnist and broadcaster, Will Lyons, will be presenting a Wine Times live show on how the best-travelled grapes have conquered the world.

The best wine minds all under one roof, sharing their unique insights. Unmissable!
