

COVID-19 update

Keeping you informed

As the fight against COVID-19 continues, Blue Shield of California is extending cost-sharing waivers through February 28, 2021 for COVID-19 treatment.

Treatment

Since last April, Blue Shield has waived co-payments, coinsurance, and deductibles for COVID-19 treatment. We are extending this waiver through February 28, 2021. This applies to the following plan types:

- Fully insured plans
- Plans purchased through Blue Shield of California directly
- Plans purchased through Covered California
- Employer-sponsored plans where the plan sponsor elects to pay for copays, coinsurance, and deductibles for COVID-19 treatment. These plans are not required to cover these costs. Employer groups with questions on this topic should contact their account team.

Covered services include any treatments for COVID-19 from doctors, hospitals, and other healthcare professionals in a plan's network from March 1, 2020 through February 28, 2021. Providers must use proper diagnosis and procedure codes related to COVID-19 for Blue Shield to waive member deductible, copay, and coinsurance liability for treatment.

Please note: COVID-19 guidance evolves rapidly. Our responses are based on existing guidance and are subject to change depending on legal and/or regulatory developments.
