

COVID-19 update

Keeping you informed

Help avoid a 'twindemic' in communities and prolonged absences at work.

A flu shot is always a good idea. But this year, amid the COVID-19 pandemic, flu shots are more important than ever. As we head into flu season, it's important to encourage your employees, even healthy ones, to get vaccinated and to maintain a healthy lifestyle.

COVID-19 and the flu share many similar symptoms. Vaccines can greatly reduce the risk of your employees contracting the flu, or from experiencing complications from the flu. This can help ensure a more accurate diagnosis and treatment of their symptoms. Most fully insured plans provide access to $0 flu shots at a variety of convenient locations.*

We've crafted resources to answer common questions and bust myths regarding flu vaccines. Contact your Blue Shield representative for more information about flu vaccine coverage and locations.
