April 13, 2025

Potential Elevated Flare Due to Maintenance

The Parkland Burnaby Refinery will be taking processing units offline to conduct maintenance work over the course of the week, starting Sunday, April 13th, 2025. During this time, nearby residents may notice a higher-than-normal flare and potential noise from the flaring.

The Refinery is committed to safe, reliable and responsible operations. All safety and environmental protocols are being followed, and all required regulators have been notified.
