

About Albert

Albert is the personal financial assistant that manages your money for you. Trusted by over 10 million people, Albert brings together your entire financial life in one place, and can actually act on it, moving money, paying bills, finding savings, and building a plan that fits you. Budget, save, spend, invest, plan, and sync all your accounts, all in one app. Learn more at www.albert.com, or download the Albert app on iOS or Android.